WANT MINUTE MEN COMPANIES ORGANIZED

TELEGRAMS POUR IN ON CHARLES G. DAWES SEEKING AUTHORITY

General Says That Illinois is Big Enough Territory But That He Has No Objections If Other States Want Them—He Also Takes a Shot at Demagogue Labor Leaders

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 28.—Telegrams from many widely scattered cities have been pouring in on Brig. Gen. Charles G. Dawes, retired, seeking authority to organize companies of the "Minute Men of the Constitution," a non-partisan patriotic organization, sponsored by the general and formed as an Illinois society for the upholding of the national constitution.

The general said today that as far as he was concerned Illinois was big enough territory, but if others wanted to organize similar societies in other states he saw no objection.

General Dawes issued a characteristic statement today in reply to one from Victor Olander, secretary of the Illinois Federation of Labor, who questioned the motives of the "Minute Men" organizers and said some of the language of the organization's platform resembled that of advocates of the industrial "open shop."

"Such a statement as the one issued this morning by Victor Olander, secretary of the Illinois Federation of Labor, reflecting upon the sincerity of the Minute Men of the Constitution is a fair sample of the stuff and claptrap which has intimidated the cowardly politicians of this country and prevented the proper presentation of the issue of good government and law enforcement in the political platforms of both parties," said the general's statement.

"The Minute Men of the Constitution challenges the right of labor demagogues to speak for the patriotic citizens composing labor organizations in this state. The Minute Men of the Constitution has now and will always have patriotic members of labor unions in its membership and they at last, do not propose to have their position or issues involving the interest of good government outlined to the public by gas bags like Olander."

"If labor demagogues and the more contemptible political demagogues are worrying about our sincerity, let them come up to Evanston on Tuesday night when company No. 1 of the Minute Men of the Constitution is formally organized and judge of it."

The president touched on a number of subjects of special interest to the editors of the country and said he would "rather be a newspaper editor than anything else in the world." For that reason, he added, he was going to remain publisher of the Marion Star "until they settle up my estate."

"I care nothing about editorial criticism directed against the individual," the president said, in leading up to his reference to the international court. "But I read within 48 hours a very earnest editorial wherein it was stated that the recent proposal of the executive to the senate to adhere to the international court of justice was imposed upon the executive by the interference and by the cunning and the design of the international bankers. Well, there isn't a word of truth in it, and I want to tell this to you because it will enlarge your vision and enable you to comment some times a little more satisfactorily."

No Audience is Asked
"I have been president something more than two years. I have yet to be asked for an audience or interview by a single international banker in America or elsewhere. And the only exchanges of opinions between international bankers and the president of the United States have been at the request of the president and it is fair to say that in the instances when they have been summoned they have said, with just the same patriotic interest and devotion that you would say, 'Mr. President, we are at your service in any way you wish to command us.' It is fair to tell you that when publishers and editors say with seeming sincerity and great emphasis that the government is being led astray at the behest or design of the bankers there isn't a grain of truth to justify the statement."

Accuracy and truthfulness, combined in a policy of non-partisanship, the editors agreed today, should be the aim of the new association. Charles McDuckett of the New York Evening Post said a distinctive character of the every day news should be formed with a combination of enough national and international news to keep its local

EXPLAIN MYSTERY SURROUNDING THE FAILURE OF TRUCE

Mine Union Leader Tells Committee of What Happened

(By The Associated Press)
MARION, Ill., April 28.—The mystery surrounding the failure of a truce arranged the night before the Herrin riots was explained by Fox Hughes, mine union leader, today at an executive session of the legislature investigation committee which then adjourned to meet here again Monday morning.

Previous witnesses testified that thru the efforts of Col. Sam Hunter, personnel officer in the staff of Adjutant General Carlos Black, and Marion business man W. J. Lester agreed to close down his mine which he had been operating with non-union laborers.

This was on Wednesday afternoon after one of the trucks had been beset and three of its occupants shot and after three union miners had been shot at the mine and while the mine itself was surrounded and under attack.

Witnesses testified that Colonel Hunter telephoned to C. K. McDowell, superintendent of the mine and he agreed to cease firing and raise a white flag, when informed that Lester was willing to close the mine.

Colonel Hunter then, according to previous testimony, talked to Fox Hughes at the miners' headquarters in Herrin, told him Lester had agreed to close the mine and the defenders had raised a white flag.

"Colonel Hunter called the miners' headquarters at about 6 o'clock that day and asked for William Sneed president of the sub-district and a state senator, Hugh Willis, state executive board member of the Illinois mine workers," Hughes testified. "I told him that Sneed had gone back to Springfield and that Willis had just stepped out and he had arranged to close the mine at the mine and said we ought to do what we could to stop the trouble. I agreed with him."

Started for Mine.
"Then I put a white flag to use as a flag of truce in my shirt and started to the mine in an automobile, I got out at Crenshaw crossing and walked to the mine. I did not see any white flag but heard shots and bullets whizzed past my head."

"So I returned to town. I did not see Willis and did nothing further because I heard Willis had already started to Marion to confer with Colonel Hunter. I did not know anything about an agreement to take the men out of the mine the next morning."

Other witnesses testified that Colonel Hunter had telephoned to General Black at Springfield that day that hardware stores had been raided and arms seized. That several union miners had been shot and that the mine was being attacked. At 11 o'clock his night after a conference with Deas Duty state's attorney, Hugh Willis, Melvin Thaxton, sheriff of the county, and Circuit Judge D. T. Hartwell, Hunter, according to the testimony telephoned to General Black that a truce had been arranged and troops would not be needed.

It was agreed at this conference that Hunter, the sheriff and Hugh Willis would go out to the mine the next morning early and see that the truce was carried out, but disagreed to the time for the meeting.

Major Robert Davis of Carbonado, said they were to meet at the sheriff's office at 6 o'clock, but he said they did not arrive until about 8 and when they reached the mine an hour later, the non-union workers already had surrendered. Twenty-three of them were later shot down.

Six police officers from Marion and Herrin also testified during the day and were severely criticized by members of the committee for their confessed inactivity.

SENATOR NELSON DIES ON TRAIN

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 28.—United States Senator Knute Nelson died on a Pennsylvania railroad train at 8:15 o'clock tonight when on his way from Washington to Chicago where he was to continue on his way to his home in Minnesota.

FINAL STEP TAKEN TOWARD BREAKING BIG LIQUOR RING

Fifty Five Sentenced by Court in Gary Bootleg Cases

(By The Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 28.—The final step toward breaking up an alleged liquor ring which has had as its leaders a number of officials of Gary and Lake county, Indiana, was taken in the United States district court here today with the sentencing of fifty-five men and women to jail and prison.

They were convicted by a jury March 31, following a trial at which government witnesses testified that protection was given liquor law violators by political leaders in return for assistance at the polls. Stories of grafting from liquor dealers also were told. The sentences ranged from one day to a year and a half. Fines as high as $2,000 also were assessed.

Only three of the fifty-five persons who were found guilty were successful in their motions for new trials. Following the denial of the motions by Judge Ferdinand Genger of Milwaukee, Wis., twenty-two defendants announced they would take an appeal. Persons sentenced were notified that they would have 120 days in which to make arrangements for serving their prison terms.

Rosevelt O. Johnson, mayor of Gary, received the stiffest sentence—a year and six months at the federal prison at Atlanta, Georgia, and a fine of $2,000. Sentences of a year and a day were given to Lewis Barnes, formerly sheriff of Lake county, and now chairman of the Gary board of public works; William M. Dunn, judge of the Gary city court, until after his conviction, and Blaz A. Lucas, Gary attorney. The men also were fined $1,000.

ROCKFORD MAN WHO IS UNDER SENTENCE ON HONEYMOON TRIP

Elmer A. Hall Must Serve in Penitentiary for Robbery

(By The Associated Press)
ROCKFORD, Ill., April 28.—Elmer A. Hall, under sentence to the penitentiary for an indeterminate sentence of from one to fourteen years, is on his honeymoon. The wedding tour of Hall and his bride, who was Miss Margaret Strot of Rockford, is somewhat restricted by the penitentiary. He is expected to spend his final papers arrive from Springfield he will ask Judge R. K. Welsh for a parole, using his recent marriage which took place the day the supreme court handed down an adverse decision, as his excuse.

Hall yesterday through his attorney notified Sheriff Atkinson of Winnebago county of his whereabouts. It is expected that when final papers arrive from Springfield he will ask Judge R. K. Welsh for a parole, using his recent marriage which took place the day the supreme court handed down an adverse decision, as his excuse.

TWO NEAR DEATH FROM COLLISION

(By The Associated Press)
DES MOINES, Iowa, April 28.—Walter Frank, aged 21 and Earl Chase, aged 18, both of Garfield center, were reported by hospital physicians to be near death tonight as the result of injuries sustained this morning when their auto collided with a truck. Three other youths in the automobile less seriously injured, and probably will recover, it was said.

Police announced that charges probably would be filed against Wm. McDonough, driver of the truck. The youths were enroute to the Drake stadium to attend today's athletic carnival when the accident occurred.

CONVICTED OF MURDERING WIFE

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 28.—Thaddeus Johnson, a negro laborer, who was convicted of murdering his wife by throwing her from a fourth story window and sentenced to be hanged, was saved from the gallows today when he was granted a new trial. A few moments after the motion was granted Johnson pleaded guilty and was sentenced to life imprisonment by Judge Marcus Kavanagh.

START PROBE IN CONNECTION WITH DEATH OF WOMAN

Body Said to Have Been Taken from House of David

(By The Associated Press)
ST. JOSEPH, Mich., April 28.—Sheriff George C. Bridgeman, and state police today began an investigation into a report concerning the death two years ago of a woman whose body was taken from the house of David and is alleged to have borne marks of violence about the neck. The body, it is reported, was buried in Crystal Springs cemetery. It is said the body was placed nude in a rough wooden box and covered only with some wrapping paper.

Rumors concerning the woman's death are said to have come from some one in the colony two weeks ago. The body, according to reports reaching the sheriff, was given to an undertaker in Benton Harbor who prepared it for burial. The man who dug the grave and covered the box is said to have told officers that the cover of the box fell off, revealing the corpse while it was being lowered in the grave. He is said to have declared he drove the nails "back in" with his shovel. The investigation has not yet revealed the identity of the woman or the place of burial. When found, the body will be exhumed and an effort made to determine whether death was natural, the sheriff said.

SAYS IT WILL TAKE $199 PER MONTH TO KEEP FAMILY OF FIVE

Working Man Makes Reply to Budget Recently Given Out

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Ill., April 28.—Dignity, morality and health can not exist among a family of five on less than $199 a month. The declaration came yesterday as the reply of the working man to the budget recently compiled by the United Charities. Thru the labor bureau, state legislators for industrial unions throughout the country, the laborer declared he could not maintain his family on the $151 a month budget proposed by the social workers.

In place of the $151 figure the working man submitted as a "minimum health and decency budget," for a family of five, father, mother and three children of 12, 6 and 2 years of age the following:

Food	per month	$50.27
Clothing	30.92
Rent	41.41
Fuel and lights	11.45
Furniture and furnishings	4.30
Carfare	5.25
Insurance or savings	14.58
Miscellaneous	41.72
Total	$199.01

BENJAMIN PURNELL SCORED BY JUDGE IN COURT DECISION

Says Leader Used Religion as Cloak for Immorality

(By The Associated Press)
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 28.—Religion was used as a cloak for immorality by Benjamin Purnell, leader of the House of David colony at Benton Harbor, Judge John E. Sater, of Columbus, O., declared today in an opinion filed in federal court here, awarding damages approximating $15,000 to John W. Hansel and his family of Nashville, Tenn.

The plaintiffs, former members of the colony, had sued for $80,000 which they claim represented the value of property donated to the colony and labor performed during their nine years' membership.

Purnell not only assaulted a number of girls and women, in the name of religion, but taught his followers to perjure themselves and divert threatened investigations, he declared.

"Because of secrecy enjoyed by Purnell thru his hold upon his victims," the opinion added, "knowledge of his relations with them did not extend to the members of the colony excepting a relatively few."

A low moral tone, serious offenses and petty theft have existed in the colony and have gone unpunished, and in almost all cases unbuked, the court held. Referring to the teachings of Purnell, the court declared that his utterances, oral and printed given out to the general public and to members of the colony when collectively assembled do not conform to his real teachings to an inner circle and to the manner of life prevailing within such circles.

"In the third volume of the 'book of rules' of the House of David which goes to his people," Judge Sater declared, "it is openly taught that even the courts cannot make them testify against themselves as to any evil they may have confessed, or cause them to touch upon the same."

Quoting from Book of Rules, Judge Sater quoted extensively from the book of rules of the colony and said that this with other rules published by Purnell "make clear that he dictates as to both spiritual and temporal affairs and exacts implicit obedience."

Regarding Purnell's relations with girls and women, the opinion says: "That a man may so dominate young girls or immature women as to render them submissive to him may be doubted or disbelieved but not by the person who knows the details of genuine white slave cases. In this case the submissive girls received their keep and in the name of religion were taught that subjection was a holy rite and insured immortality of their bodies."

Hansell's contribution of himself, his family and his property to the colony, the court declared, was "unquestionably benefited the colony," the court declared, and added:

"It provided a number of girls, victims on whom to practice the immorality of the colony."

Purnell's failure to appear at the hearing of the suit was noted by the court. Declaring the suit leader alone could refute charges of immoral practices with women members of the colony, Judge Sater said:

"His absence at this critical period in the behalf of himself and his colony when he should have been quick to defend, is undecipherable."

Under the charges that several break-ups in families occurred the opinion declared "The bitterness which Quinto Rosetta and his wife exhibited toward their brother, Emil Rosetta was such as is rarely witnessed in a courtroom and illustrates that there is but in the teachings of Benjamin which not only separates families, but disrupts them and awakens intense hatred among their members. Other instances of it appear in the record."

BRAKEMAN WITH BROKEN ARM AVERITS COLLISION
Worcester, Mass., April 28.—Leonard W. LEGISLATURE MUST SPEED UP WORK TO GET RID OF BILLS

Tho in Session for Four Months Less Than a Score of Bills Have Been Sent to Governor Small for Signature—Eleven Hundred and Ten Bills are On the House Calendars

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 28.—Both houses of the legislature are expected to start the fifth month of the session Tuesday with a zeal that will result in passage of a large number of bills. In the four months just ended, less than a score of measures have been sent to the governor, but now the calendars are congested to a point where a speeding-up of the legislative machinery is imperative.

Eleven hundred and ten bills have been introduced to date and many of them are still in committee. Hundreds are awaiting action in both houses. The list of measures on the senate calendar in particular resembles a page from a telephone directory. There are about forty bills on the order on passage in the senate and about 30 in the house, besides a few hundred on first and second reading.

This congestion apparently precludes the early adjournment that was talked of a month ago, and it is regarded unlikely that the gavel will fall for the last time before June 25.

The routine of passing bills will be interrupted in the house coming week by party clashes and discussion of and probable amendment of the co-operative marketing bill. Minority Leader Devine will move Tuesday to non-concur in the unfavorable appropriations committee report on his resolution to investigate expenditure of all appropriations of the previous assembly. The Republicans have the strength to defeat the motion and it is believed they will stand together.

Representative Devine also has announced he will offer amendments to the appropriation bill for State Treasurer Nelson of $171,080, and they may come next week. They will propose striking out several items in the appropriation. The "co-op" bill is expected to meet a heavy barrage from its opponents, who will endeavor to qualify it in several ways, one being a limitation on the length of memberships. It merged from the senate without a "sinker."

Ardent friends of boxing will attempt to call up the boxing bill in the house for passage Tuesday or Wednesday. Some representatives are known to be opposed to professional fighting, but the bill's champions do not believe there is enough opposition to defeat it.

Proceeding with its investigation of the failure of constituted authorities to prevent the Herrin rioting, the house committee headed by Representative Frank McCarthy, will hold sessions here during the week. It is expected the first will be on Tuesday, and that witnesses brought from Herrin will be given an opportunity to testify away from the cloud of reticence which overshadows Williamson county.

Prevented this week by the long police bill debate from reporting out the Meentz $100,000,000 road bond proposal, the senate roads and bridges committee is expected to do so either Tuesday or Wednesday. That it will be reported favorably is certain.

Whether the woman's eight hour work day bill will get out of the senate industrial affairs committee in the coming week is doubtful. Its enemies will probably try to keep it there. Fifteen members of the committee, including Senator Hanson, Republican, Bloomington, its chairman, voted yesterday to send the measure to committee when it came from the house. Eight members voted to put the bill on the calendar immediately. Six members—all Chicago senators—Bonnens, Palmer and Stegman; H. Hartfield and W. Hartfield, whose attitude toward the bill is not generally known were absent when the vote was taken.

STRIKING I. W. W. SEAMEN ARRESTED
New Orleans, La., April 28.—Twenty-four striking I. W. W. seamen were arrested by 150 police late tonight as they were emerging from a hall where a meeting of about 150 strikers was held. The total arrests since the strike began reached fifty.

CHICAGO MAN DIES ON TRAIN
Danville, Ill., April 28.—P. W. Butushow, aged about 60, on his way from Florida to the home of a son in Chicago, was taken ill this morning on a Chicago and Eastern Illinois train and died this afternoon in a hospital here, to which he was removed when the train arrived.

RECOVER DIAMOND; WOMAN ARRESTED
(By The Associated Press)
Chicago, April 28.—Mrs. Oliver Clam, who according to a jewelry firm swallowed a ring valued at $175 when she was observed trying to put it in her purse last Thursday, was arrested at the county hospital on a charge of larceny today after the ring had been recovered and returned to its owners. The presence of the stone in her stomach was discovered by X-rays.

PREMIER POINCARE TO GET COMPLETE REPORT ON PARLEY

Will Also Consider Appointment of Syrian Commissioner

(By The Associated Press)
LUZARNE, April 28.—Premier Poincare of France will be given a complete report on the near east conference tomorrow by General Weygand, newly appointed high commissioner in Syria, the general military situation in Turkey, including the activities of Turkish divisions in Cilicia which the French regard as a possible menace to Syria, held under mandate by France.

General Pello is also expected to talk over with the Premier and General Weygand, newly appointed high commissioner in Syria, the general military situation in Turkey, including the activities of Turkish divisions in Cilicia which the French regard as a possible menace to Syria, held under mandate by France.

The French in Lausanne openly admit that the appointment of General Weygand as second high commissioner may be taken as a warning to the Turks that any aggression against the Syrian frontier will not be tolerated. The present French intention is, during the direct negotiations to defend the French railroad concessions of 1914 with which, they contend, the Chester agreement interferes. The Allies will insist, it is understood, that these negotiations be held at Constantinople, instead of Angor, as the Turks are proposing.

SAYS JAPAN ASKS TRADE AGREEMENT

(By The Associated Press)
MOSCOW, April 28.—The soviet foreign minister announces that Japan through her representative at Vladivostok has proposed partial renewal of relations with Russia, somewhat along the lines of the Russo-British trade agreement which Moscow considers tantamount to de facto recognition. It is announced that the Russian government now is considering the proposals which include the stationing of Japanese commercial agents at Moscow, Vladivostok, Chita, and the principal commercial countries, and of soviet commercial agents at Yokohama, Nagasaki and other centers but not at Tokio.

A THOUGHT

Our fathers have sinned and are not; and we have borne their iniquities.—Lam. 5:7.

Let wickedness escape as it may at the bar, it never fails of doing justice upon itself; for every guilty person is his own hangman.—Seneca.

Just two more days in which to pay your taxes if you would avoid penalties and the unpleasantness of having your property advertised for sale to the highest bidder.

A buyer's strike on sugar is recommended by Senator Capper as the simplest and most effective way of dealing with the present sugar price situation. In times past such a course has brought results much more quickly than they can come thru government suits.

General Dawes in answer to critics of the Minute Men of the Constitution shows no timidity of speech. Mr. Dawes has the established reputation of saying what he thinks and no one can muzzle him.

It was not to be expected that Senator Borah or other of the irreconcilables would agree with President Harding's position on the world court plan. The president and his secretary of state are in perfect agreement on this proposal and their opinion will have its weight with the people generally. They are emphasizing the point that a world court canried with it no thought of a league of nations.

It is said that motion pictures made of animals, and especially of baby animals, attract the most lively interest of an audience. There's a reason. Folks like the intimate personal touch which comes from seeing real life of real creatures depicted on canvas. After all, like attracts like, and life is the most interesting thing we know.

The title of the movie to be made this week at the state institutions suggests something of value. When the Good Samaritan organizes, he multiplies his power for good. It is really true that our hospitals, and institutions for the care of the insane and feeble minded, are but an expression of neighborliness in an organized form and on a large scale.

We talk a deal about Americanization. Doubtless much can be done to Americanize adult foreigners through the medium of ideas and through social contacts; but the great conquests in Americanization must be made through the children. The playground is the living school of Americanization. Here, under clean and wise adult leadership, are learned the lessons of fair play, respect for rules, the meaning of co-operation in team play, recognition of leadership, the ideals of sportsmanship. These are learned in play and sport, and in no other way.

The original copy of the Monroe Doctrine, which was embodied in a message to congress in 1823, was recently unearthed from the files of the United States Senate. It was discolored and worn with age. Experts from the Library of Congress are renovating the manuscript and treating it with preservatives.

Something should be done to give this famous document the recognition it deserves. It should not be returned to the senate files to remain for perhaps another century. A suggestion has been made that congress make a suitable appropriation, so that the manuscript can be framed in bronze and placed in a conspicuous place in the Congressional Library.

PRIZE WINNERS
NEA

In a Pullman smoking compartment we heard a very rich man boasting that he had won a season baseball pass in a "guessing contest" conducted by a newspaper.

"I worked nights for a week," he chuckled, "and darned if I didn't hit it just right!"

In a rough way we know the amount of this man's wealth, by reputation, and we figure that it cost him at least $500 worth of time to win the prize he could have bought for less than $100. Eliminate the cash end, it doesn't matter much. For he'd have been as elated if he had won a prize of $1.

How do you explain this rich man's jubilation over a victory that wasn't worth the price it cost him?

Your first explanation probably is, "He got something for nothing."

There is no thrill like finding money—getting it without effort. Probably this is a reaction from the enslaving system that keeps our noses to the grindstone. The average millionaire gets a bigger thrill from finding a $5 goldpiece than from cleaning up $1,000 in a business deal. And, no matter how valuable his time, he'll delay whatever he was intent on, and search the premises to see if more $5 goldpieces are nearby.

You know how this weakness

Optimism Preferred

By Berton Braley

THERE are times in every species of existence
When the game of life seems scarcely worth the while,
When your hopes adna dreams all vanish in the distance
And your luck is unexceptionally vile;
When your hopes and dreams all vanish in the distance
Of whatever business you essay,
Still, if I were you I wouldn't blow my brains out.
For tomorrow is, you know, another day!

THOUGH you cannot see much prospect of improvement,
Though the sky with heavy clouds is overcast,
Though the streaks that you have purchased show a movement
Which is downward, and they're dropping very fast;
Though when you would gather hay it always rains out,
And it's sunny when for rainy days you play;
Still, if I were you I wouldn't blow my brains out.
For tomorrow is, you know, another day!

THOUGH the only thing that's waiting 'round the corner
Is misfortune with a visage that is glum,
Though your wife takes all your earnings to a town her,
And then beats it with your fondly trusted chum;
Though you long to cut your troubles and your pains out
By a method that'll finish all your sorrow;
Still, today you hadn't better blow your brains out,
For you may prefer to hand yourself tomorrow!

persists in our subconscious minds and rises to the conscious surface during dreams in which we find coin after coin until our pockets are filled.

"Something for nothing," is the lure that wastes time and takes the suckers' savings.

A greater motive than "something for nothing," however, animated the rich man in the baseball guessing contest. This thrill as victor, came mostly from the realization that in winning he demonstrated cleverness superior to that of the other contestants.

In a battle of wits, he won.

That is the motive of your "business genius," as much as and often more than the actual accumulation of profits.

Vanity—pride—is our motive in the things we do, a lot oftener and to greater extent than any of us realize.

BOY HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

Harold Menezes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Menezes 2141 South Main street, Friday evening performed the supposedly impossible feat of being run over by an automobile and yet suffering no worse injury than a sore knee.

While riding his bicycle at the corner of East State street and the square, he came very near a collision with an auto and instead of colliding he fell from his wheel, the car passing directly over his body, but entirely missing all parts of him. The wheel was completely wrecked.

While the car was passing over him the boy had presence of mind enough to keep his head down, and in this way escaped serious injury.

LOCAL YOUNG WOMAN BRIDE OF IOWA MAN

Mrs. Mae F. Hitt and William F. Klene of Ottumwa, Iowa, United in Marriage Last Night—Will Reside in Ottumwa.

The marriage of William F. Klene of Ottumwa, Iowa, and Mrs. Mae F. Hitt of this city was solemnized at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at the home of the bride, 610 West State street. The ceremony was a simple but impressive one, with Rev. M. L. Pontius, pastor of Central Christian church, officiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Julia Ferguson of this city and has spent most of her life here. She has been quite prominent in various activities of Central Christian church of which she is a member, and has also been one of the quartet which has furnished music on numerous occasions in past months.

The groom is a traveling salesman by occupation and is a well known resident of Ottumwa. He and his bride are to make their home in that city, and will carry with them the best wishes of a host of friends.

Those present at the wedding last night were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rogers and daughter, Margaret Joan, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hitt and children, Martel, Howell and Elizabeth of Merrill; Mrs. Julia Ferguson, mother of the bride, Rev. and Mrs. M. L. Pontius.

Following the ceremony last night dainty refreshments were served. After a stay of several days here the bride and groom will leave for Ottumwa to make their home.

"The Christian," can be had at Lane's Book Store, Ye Book Shoppe and the Book & Novelty Shop. Read the book and then see the picture at the Rialto. See our large advertisement. It's the most talked-of picture of the year.

LAY MASTIC FLOOR
IN NEW STRUCTURE

Soldiers' Building on Hospital Grounds is Light, Airy and Spacious—Men Busy Grading Yard to Make Large Lawn.

Workmen were busy Saturday putting down the mastic floor in the new soldiers' building on the State hospital grounds. The doors to the big structure were kept locked, as the floor could not be used until the substance had hardened.

Plenty of light, pure air and abundance of space are the elements about the new building which make the strongest impression. The cable dormer windows give a feeling of loftiness to the rooms.

On the outside of the building, scores of men were at work grading the yard. The home is to be surrounded by a smooth and well kept lawn, and the work of leveling up the dirt and distributing it to the proper places is a task of several days. A concrete wall has been laid entirely around the building, with connections running to the various porches and entrances.

CASS COUNTY POULTRY
CLUB ORGANIZATION.

The Baltimore and Ohio R. R. runs thru fourteen counties in Illinois. Their agricultural department has P. O. Hurley of Cincinnati, Ohio, as field organizer, who on Friday, April 27, met with Robert W. Dickenson, Virginia, Cass county farm adviser, and E. R. Pilchard of the state university, Urbana state club organizer and D. T. Heimlich of Jacksonville, who with other members of the Illinois State Poultry Breeders' association furnished 5,000 Single Comb Rhode Island Red hatching eggs for the Illinois Boys and Girls clubs.

There are ten members from each county. Cass county members gathered in at the farm bureau rooms and listened to talks on care, housing and feeding of baby chicks by D. T. Heimlich, P. O. Hurley then made a talk on the subject, "Why the B. & O. R. fostered this very important project giving prizes in each county." Where in October 16-17, 1923, pens and individual prizes will be awarded to the boys and girls showing the best raised from the eggs furnished.

Then later these prize winners will be sent to some central point and compete again for the capital prize of $100, a scholarship at the University or a trip to Washington, D. C., also minor prizes, ranging from $25, $20, $15 down to an $8 prize.

Prof. E. T. Pilchard then addressed the club members on the many advantages of club organizations and work done by boys and girls enrolled in this and other states, also called attention to bulletins now available from the department of the university upon these various club projects, corn, pig, calf and poultry. The meeting proved interesting to old and young, who attended with their boys and girls.

SMITH'S
FEDERAL BAKERYELKS REVUE TO BE PRESENTED MAY 11-12

High Class Musical Entertainment to be Given at Grand by Local Elks Lodge Under Direction of Prof. Arnold Lovejoy.

The Elks Vodyl Revue which is to be presented at the Grand opera house on Friday and Saturday nights, May 11 and 12, promises to be one of the best home talent performances given locally in recent years.

The production is to be given under the direction of Prof. Arnold Lovejoy of the Illinois College Conservatory of Music, and this fact alone furnishes proof that the revue will be a high class performance. Prof. Lovejoy's name has been linked with many successful musical productions both here and elsewhere, and a number of the acts to be given at the Elks revue have previously been given under his direction by the Dunbar Opera Co.

The revue will include eight acts of high class amusement features. There will be singing acts, singing and dancing sketches, some monologues, instrumental acts and a jazz concert.

The Elks male chorus will have a prominent part in the entertainment and will furnish some novel selections. In addition there will be singing and dancing features in which a number of Jacksonville's most talented young women will figure. Altogether the Elks' Vodyl Revue will be an evening of first class entertainment by local talent.

FOLKS YOU WILL LAUGH, CRY AND SHOUT AT THE SEEDINGLY UNENDING AVALANCHE OF THRILLS, ROMANCE, ROARING COMEDY, ADVENTURE AND SURPRISES IN

"QUINCY ADAMS SAWYER"

A story so intensely absorbing that you actually live amid the people you learn to love and hate and breathe the very air of the most romantic locale in modern America.

WHEN YOU SEE

THE most thrilling runaway ever screened.

THE ferryboat caught in the mad swirl of the surging rapids with its human freight and the daring rescue of the blind girl by the hero just as the craft crashes over the falls.

THE two hundred foot-leap of horse and rider from the precipice to the rushing river below, and completely turning over in mid-air as they descend.

THE terrific street fight where youth and science win against brute force.

THE meanest and slickest way ever devised to rid the field of rivals for the hand of your best girl.

THE ludicrous effort of the small town quartet to be the life at the party.

THESE and hundreds of other big surprise episodes, both dramatic and uproariously funny.

YOU WILL SAY

"I have never been so royally entertained, laughed so heartily or experienced so many soul-stirring moments as in

The Picture the World Has Been Waiting To See!

Goldwyn Presents

"The Christian"

With

Richard Dix, Mae Busch, Gareth Hughes

Phyllis Haver, Mahlon Hamilton

Adapted from the Famous Novel and Play by Sir Hall Caine

Directed by Maurice Tourneur

At last the most famous love story of history comes to the screen in a blaze of power and glory. All the world has been thrilled by the story of the man who forsook the call of religion for the lure of a fascinating stage beauty. Millions of people in every corner of the globe have called the love drama of John Storm and Glory Quayle the most gripping and absorbing narrative of man's enslavement to a woman's charms that humanity has ever known. And now it has been brought to the screen in a mammoth production staged in England and America. The great scenes on England's glorious Isle of Man, the tremendous spectacle of the famous Epsom Downs races, the colossal mob riots in historic Trafalgar Square, the thrilling fights in London's darkest slums are only a few of the big dramatic moments that set this stupendous film apart from all others as the Year's Biggest Photoplay Sensation. Here at last is the picture that the world has been waiting to see.

Mr. Rainey Writes on Railroad Trespassing

White Hall, April 28.—Railroad managers are not popular, Congressman Henry T. Rainey, says in a recent letter to R. B. Pearce, written in response to Mr. Pearce's communication with reference to trespassing on railroad tracks and trains. Mr. Rainey wrote as follows:

Carrollton, Ill.

My Dear Mr. Pearce:

I thank you for the very interesting article from the Jacksonville Journal, which you wrote. I did not know about the law in South American countries and in England as to trespassing on railroad tracks. Railroads in the United States do not usually own the real estate they occupy with their tracks. When they cease to occupy their rights of way for railroad purposes, this real estate reverts to the original grantors. A railroad is a public highway in the United States for many purposes. If laws are enacted against trespassers, the reason for the laws should be the protection of the trespassers from injury. The railroads are sufficiently protected when they are not required to respond in damages when they injure trespassers, it seems to me, I think I see a difference between the rights a private owner of land should be permitted to exercise over his property and the rights a railroad company should be permitted to exercise over the land they use for railroad purposes. Railroad companies are given a very great power indeed when they are permitted to take your land without your consent and use it for their own purposes. Railroad managers have not been very popular in the past, and they are going to be less popular in the immediate future.

I have been trying to help the people along the C. P. and St. L. railroad, who are about to be deprived of railroad transportation. I am not feeling very friendly just at present to railroad managers. At the request of the State Register, I have prepared an article on the subject, which goes to them today. I am above simply giving you my first reactions, after reading your article, for your consideration. A law preventing trespassing on railroad property, in order to protect the trespassers themselves from injury, would appeal to me very much, but not so much if the reason for it is the protection of the railroad companies.

Very truly,
Henry T. Rainey.

WINCHESTER YOUTH TO BE BURIED TODAY

Funeral of Raymond Walker to be Held This Afternoon From Baptist Church—Other Items From Winchester.

Winchester, April 28.—The funeral of Raymond Walker will be held from the Baptist church at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, in charge of Rev. W. R. Johnson. Interment will be in the Holloway cemetery.

The death of the young man came as a great shock to his many friends. He had been in rather poor health for the past year and recently suffered an attack of flu. However, his condition had greatly improved and he was able to be about the streets Friday afternoon, his death coming only a few hours afterward.

The deceased, who was seventeen years of age, was a son of Mrs. Sidney McLaughlin, and had spent almost all his life in the Winchester community. He was a young man of many fine qualities and his untimely death brings sadness to many hearts.

News Notes

Mrs. Gertrude Demereth and son Nicholas have returned home from a stay of several months in Miami, Fla.

Robert Frost and Raymond Funk of Washington, U. S. are home for a week end visit with relatives.

The home of Thomas Kirkman has been improved by a new coat of paint.

Mrs. Leonard Taylor and little daughter of St. Louis are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stewart.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Another Corn Culting Demonstration

This will be given at Charles A. Ogle's farm west of Arcadia Monday afternoon. The seed corn will be selected so as to get it disease free by physical characteristics alone.

Phosphate Plots
The phosphate demonstrations are to be found on practically every type of soil in Morgan county. John Boddy of Markham has spread phosphate on a half acre of timbered soil which has never had any previous soil treatment in the way of commercial fertilizer. Robert Gibson of the Providence neighborhood has his plot on wheat that was sown in soybean stubble. The application of 250 pounds of acid phosphate per acre were decidedly light and the effect will be noted with interest.

Ton Litter Nominations
The following people have made nomination for the ton litter contest: Dwight Green, L. A. Reed, Riggs Bros., S. H. McDevitt, J. W. Rawlings, L. J. Stewart, Mervin Hart, Wilbur Williams, Ben A. Smith, Walter Long, C. N. Kinnert, Carl Hermes, Charles N. Wyatt, John H. Laurie, McCarty & Wheeler, George F. Fox, E. J. Reid. The contestants are reminded of the rules governing the prizes.

COUPLE MUST RETURN TO ITALY

(By The Associated Press)
ROCKFORD, Ill., April 28.—Their lifetime savings given to a man who smuggled them into the United States, Benedetto Vitale, 21, and Luigi Turara, 23, must leave friends and relatives here and be deported to Italy.
Vitale's parents and Turara's brothers came to America many years ago. There was not enough money to pay the passage of the children so they were left behind with relatives. They spent their youth with work and plans to come here. When they were ready to sail they were refused passage because Italy's quota for the year had been admitted. A slick stranger offered to get admittance for $1,000 each. Not realizing the seriousness of breaking the immigration law they accepted his offer. They were smuggled via Cuba on a tramp steamer.
Their illegal presence was discovered in Florida where they were landed. Pending a decision in their case they were allowed to come to their relatives in Rockford. Now the decision has arrived. They must go back.

FEW AUTOMOBILES MADE IN ENGLAND RAPID STRIDES

LONDON.—Every tenth person in the United States owns an automobile, according to British statistics. American manufacturers produce in a single month more than the total number of cars now in use in the whole of Great Britain, which is 314,769. In 1922 America turned out nearly 3,000,000 cars. Britain's output was less than 40,000.

American automobile owners in 1922 used 32,000,000 tires and 34,000,000 inner tubes. The total number of employees in the British car industry is less than 100,000, which is insignificant when compared with any one of the prominent American factories. In Great Britain there is only one automobile to every 152 of population.

British manufacturers are discarding the heavier motors, for lighter and more flexible designs. They have found that the modern 10 or 12 horse-power car performs better than the heavy 20 or 30 horse-power car of a few years ago. The lighter cars have remarkable power of acceleration, flexibility, and smoothness of running, due to their high speed engine.

As the cost of licenses in Britain is based upon the horsepower of the motor it is important to confine the size of the motor to reasonable limits, especially for the mass of moderate means.

PHEASANT EGGS FROM ENGLAND WILL BE HATCHED IN AMERICA

London.—Experiments made by a large firm of game breeders have shown that pheasants' eggs can be sent to America and satisfactorily hatched out.

The firm has therefore made arrangements with a trans-Atlantic line of steamers to take over ten thousand eggs by their vessels when the laying season starts next month.

"The pheasant is not native to America," said the manager of this firm, "and stocks have constantly to be renewed and the blood strains changed. Hitherto we have been sending live birds, but now we know that eggs can be sent equally as well. They will be shipped the day they are laid and should be under a hen pheasant or in an incubator in America about ten days later."

GHOSTS ALONE DISTURB MAIL RUNNERS OF INDIA

London.—"Not a year passes that does not take its heavy toll of Indian mail runners who lose their lives in the execution of their duty. It might be a tiger, a swollen river, an avalanche in the Himalayas or a gang of robbers. The work goes on just the same; the mail goes thru whatever happens."

So said Geoffrey Rothe Clarke, director general of Posts and Telegraphs in India, speaking before the Indian section of the Royal Society of Arts. With the runners, Mr. Clarke stated, the mail was a fetish they would protect at all costs. For wild beasts, floods, and dangers of various kinds they would not turn aside. But fearless though they were threatened with such perils, they would go miles out of their way, even when carrying the precious mails, to avoid an evil spirit whom they suspected of lodging in a tree. Of ghosts they are really far more afraid than of the fiercest wild beasts.

CONTRACTS FOR CEMENT SUPPLY

Springfield.—More than 800,000 barrels of cement, constituting 25 per cent of the total amount contracted by the state for the coming season, were shipped during the first three months of this year to start the 1923 road building program, the state highway department has announced.

The bureau of materials of the department also has covered the inspection of sand, gravel and stone at 43 plants in the state. Shipments of materials totaling 80,000 cubic yards were made from three plants during January, February and March.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR ATHLETES

Melbourne.—A newspaper fund has been opened to raise 10,000 pounds sterling to ensure adequate representation of Australia at the next Olympic games to be held in Paris in 1924. It is proposed to send a team of 40 athletes.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R. DEFIES LABOR BOARD

Chicago, April 28.—The Pennsylvania railroad, which announced yesterday its defiance of a United States railroad labor board decision despite adverse ruling of the United States supreme court, will be called before the board May 12, to determine if it shall be cited for a violation of another decision. Chairman Ben W. Hooper announced today.

The road, after questioning the board's right of jurisdiction in its decision stating the method in which shopcraft employees representatives shall be elected, obtained an injunction against the board, restraining it from citing the board until the United States supreme court ruled on the case. At about the same time a decision involving the road with the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station employees, also involving the question of the election of representatives was not put into effect by the carrier officials.

In this instance the clerks did not strike, as did the shopmen, and, after the supreme court ruled against the road in the shopcraft controversy, addressed two letters to the road officials asking for a conference on the matter. When these were not answered the clerks petitioned the board to cite the road and the board members today set the matter for hearing on May 12.

COBOLIA MOUNDS ARE INSPECTED

St. Louis, Mo., April 28.—A delegation of the appropriation committee of the Illinois legislature yesterday visited the Cahokia mound district near East St. Louis and inspected it to determine its value as a state park. A bill pending before the legislature asks that the district be purchased for that purpose.

The committee did not reach an agreement and announced it would confer again with the owner of the land as to price before making a report to the general appropriations committee.

CUSTER SURVIVOR FOUND

Washington.—One more survivor of the Custer massacre has been unearthed by the pension bureau. He is a Shuh-shuh-ahsa, a Crow Indian, now living on the Crow reservation in Montana, and is drawing a pension for service in the Indian campaigns of 1876 and 1877. Recent investigation of his case resulted in a pension certificate being issued. He is famed by mingling with the Sioux and Cheyennes.

THE "UNEARNED INCREMENT" IN RAILWAY LAND

One of the principal grounds upon which the valuation placed by the Interstate Commerce Commission upon the railways has been criticised, is that it includes a large allowance for "unearned increment" in their hands. The Railway Age, in an editorial in its current issue publishes data which it declares shows that if nothing whatever was included in the valuation for the value of land, this would make a difference of only 2 per cent in the passenger and freight rates that would have to be paid by the public.

"One of the most popular diversions of the anti-railway propaganda for years," says the Railway Age, "has been that of denouncing railways for charging rates high enough to yield a return upon the unearned increment in their land. It has been pointed out that in the extensive days of railway construction the companies were given land grants amounting to many hundreds of thousands of acres. It has been said that the increase in the value of this land and of land bought by them has been enormous. It has been contended that valuations and rates made to enable the railways to earn a return upon this unearned increment impose a heavy and unjust burden upon the public."

"The data that the interstate Commerce Commission has made public regarding the valuations it has placed upon numerous individual railways included figures showing the amounts included in the valuations for lands actually owned and used for transportation purposes. These appraisals of the land of the railways are based upon the estimated value of lands used for other purposes adjacent to railway lands. We have repeatedly heard and read statements to the effect that the increase in the value of railway land amounts to from a quarter of a billion dollars yearly. Let us now look at the facts."

"The Commission has now announced final valuations for 48 Class I railways. The appraisals of the land of these various railways amount to from 15 per cent to 26.2 per cent of their total valuations. The combined valuation placed upon all of them is $2,242,928,000. The valuation placed on lands owned and used by them is $247,999,000, or 11.0 per cent of their total valuation."

"The total tentative valuation placed by the Commission upon all the railways in the United States is now about $19,400,000,000. There is no reason to believe that when the valuations of the individual railways are completed the aggregate allowance made for land will be found to be relatively any larger than the allowance made for the land of the individual railways whose final valuations have been announced. If this should be the case, the total valuation placed by the interstate Commerce Commission upon the land of all the railways will be about $2,100,000,000. In other words, this will be approximately the appraisal placed by the Commission upon all the land which the railways have acquired and the entire increase in its value which has occurred in about 100 years. The Commission held the railways are entitled to earn 5 1/2 per cent upon their valuation. To pay this percentage of return upon the entire part of the valuation due to land, 'unearned increment' and all, would take 2 per cent of the present earnings. Therefore, no allowance whatever was made for the value of railway land which makes a difference in freight and passenger rates of 2 per cent."

"The people who really have benefited enormously by increases in the value of land are the farmers. The statistics of the census show that between 1900 and 1920 the increase in the value of farms and farm property was 285 per cent, or fifty-seven billion dollars. Most of this increase in the value of farms and farm property was 'unearned increment' and it never could have occurred without the expansion of the railroads which took place during these years."

MOB ATTEMPTS TO GET NEGRO FROM JAIL

Columbia, Mo., April 28.—A mob reported to number 1,500 persons was in front of the county jail here at 12.30 this morning in an attempt to take James Scott, negro, who is alleged to have attempted to assault a 14 year old girl here a week ago.

Scott was identified by Regina Alstedt, daughter of a professor of the University of Missouri, as the man who attempted to assault her. Feeling he has been running high here for several days, Scott was employed as a janitor at the medical school of the university.

CALCULATING DEVICE IN PERUVIAN TOMB

LIMA, Peru.—The fact that ancient Inca civilization in Peru possessed an efficient calculating machine has been established by a recent discovery of Francisco Loaysa of Lima. The instrument consists of a knotted cord or "quipu," unearthed in a prehistoric tomb near Cajamarca. While it has been well known that the Incas made use of "quipus" in common with many other aboriginal peoples in the new world, Mr. Loaysa is the first historian who has been able to interpret and describe fully the use to which this device was put. His studies show that the Incas had a well developed system of arithmetic, based on the decimal system, and that they employed the "quipu" for the purposes of rapid calculation in subtraction, multiplication and division.

The "master quipu" discovered by Mr. Loaysa consists of a cord about 16 yards long, containing 100 knots. These knots are divided into 10 unequal sections by as many silver beads, representing the odd numbers from 1 to 19. The sections are of different colors, including red, brown, yellow, blue and green. The colors are important factors in the calculating process. The silver beads placed between the groups represent the even numbers from 2 to 20. By counting according to the rules discovered by Mr. Loaysa, all arithmetical operations can be carried out in a rapid and mechanical manner. Calculations involving tens, hundreds and thousands are possible by this device.

Many simple forms of "quipus" have been found in Peru, but this is the only highly developed one yet discovered. These master cords were not in ordinary use, but were probably reserved for the royal statisticians.

Mr. Loaysa does not believe that the "quipu" originated with the Incas, but declares that the device was first used by the ancient Chinese, later by the Japanese and believes that it was brought to America by Asiatic migrations in ages past.

FATHER CARES FOR FAMILY: WIFE WORKS. Chicago, April 28.—Stephen Kerkas, father of four children, was back at his old job today of mothering them, doing the house work, the cooking and sewing while his wife was again at her daily labor to earn money to support the family. A judge in the court of domestic relations sent Kerkas to the Bridewell when he complained his wife stayed home from work and that he suspected her of keeping company with other men. There he remained until yesterday when Mrs. Kerkas and her four children came to the court and pleaded for his release. Mrs. Kerkas said she was willing to toil away from home while her husband tended house.

"What difference does it make which job I take and which one he takes?" Mrs. Kerkas asked the judge.

"The children also told the judge they missed their father's presence."

AGREEMENT REACHED WITH THE CHINESE

Washington, April 28.—(By The A. P.)—American Minister Schurman at Peking has reached an agreement with the Chinese foreign office for settlement of the Colman case, involving the death of Charles Colman, an American, at the hands of Chinese sentries at the gates of Kalgan.

The agreement provides for an apology from the Tuchen in the province of Kaigan, the immediate removal from office of the chief of staff, the chief adjutant, and the adjutant who were in command of the offending troops and the payment to Colman's heirs of a indemnity to be fixed by the American government.

YANKS and LEGIONAIRES

Forgetful Facts Concerning the Interests of Former Soldiers and Sailors and Marines.

The active armies of Europe are made up of 3,645,000 men. The U. S. Government paid $253,807,583 in soldiers' pensions last year.

An infantry division of the United States army at war strength has 905 officers. The U. S. government has awarded 89 congressional medals of honor, the highest American war decoration.

Approximately $440,000 worth of real estate and buildings are owned by posts of the American Legion in Los Angeles, Cal.

Two hundred and sixty-four British soldiers and civilians were put to death during the world war. In 2,450 cases, death sentences were commuted.

Of the 93,962 disabled veterans of the world war who are being rehabilitated in the schools and hospitals of the government, less than two per cent are suffering from amputations.

Dr. Alexis Carrel, who invented the "Carrel-Dakin" solution which saved the lives of thousands of soldiers in the world war is head of the surgical research department of the Rockefeller institute.

Approximately 455 trades, crafts and sciences are taught to former service men suffering from vocational handicaps. The men are in training in more than 32,000 schools, institutions and organizations.

Sixty-five tons of barbed wire have been cleared up from the various metal products. More than 2,000 captured German cannon are stored in fields and arsenals in New Jersey awaiting distributions by congress to cities and villages which desire to use them as ornaments and mementoes of the world war.

The United States has tentatively fixed at $1,187,736,867 the amount which it will demand from the German government in payment of the claims of the American government and its citizens growing out of the world war.

The naval strength of Canada is two destroyers and four minesweepers, with a personnel of fewer than 400 for coastal defense only. There is a naval reserve of 500 sailors and fishermen; a volunteer naval reserve of 1,000 and 200 boys being trained in the Canadian navy league.

Eleven American nurses of the world war are buried in Suresnes cemetery, in France. They are Ruth L. Smith, Eva Emmons, Lucy Fletcher, Florence Kimball, Katherine Dent, Nellie Dingley, Marion Peck, Fanny Scheckerd, Ella Dalton, Alice Hagerdorn and Florence B. Graham.

The Seventy Ninth Division of Pennsylvania, has the distinction of leading all other divisions of the United States army in the number of officers assigned. There are 933 officers assigned to its various units, this being 25 more than the full complement for an infantry division at war strength.

According to plans announced by the navy department, Philadelphia is to have the finest aviation field near the center of any large city in the country. A site of 80 acres has been selected near the League Island Navy yard. The flying field when completed will be more than 10,000 yards in length and about 600 in width.

During the period from 1919 to 1922, eight of every 100 United States army air pilots were killed outright each year, and two were incapacitated for further duty. These accidents are attributed to intensive experiments in the army air service, formation flying and the necessary "stunting" incident to pursuit and combat training.

France mobilized the largest percentage of her male population 39 per cent or 7,000,000,000, for the world war, immediately after her came Germany and Austria-Hungary, with 35 per cent, or 11,000,000,000 respectively; then Italy with 29 per cent, or 5,000,000,000 and Great Britain with 26 per cent, or 5,000,000.

An air lighthouse for airplanes was recently tested at Mitchell Field, Long Island, and is said to be an unqualified success. The device consists of small search lights of a distinctive kind flash in the Morse code the first letters of the field's name in this case are "M" at 10 second intervals. The "lighthouse" has a 10 mile visibility range, and the pilots arriving in New York at night will have no trouble locating the field.

BABY FALLS IN WELL; SAVES ITS OWN LIFE

Springfield, Ill., April 28.—A girl baby's instinct, which led her to grasp a pipe after she had fallen into a deep well here yesterday, saved her life. The mother, Mrs. A. B. Bailey, missed the baby while hanging out the wash. She looked down the well and there saw her two year old baby, almost submerged, but clinging with one chubby hand to an iron pipe. She had fallen thru a hole in the platform. The baby's name is Charlotte Anne Bailey.

MABEL DODGE STERNE MARRIES CHAUFFEUR

New York, April 28.—Mrs. Mabel Dodge Sterne, widely known in artist and tourist circles, was married to her chauffeur, Antonio Lujan, a full-blooded Indian, at Taos, N. M., on April 16, the New York World says today. It was her third marriage.

Her first husband was Edwin Dodge, a Boston architect. In 1917 she was married to Maurice Sterne, Russian painter, who now is living in Italy.

She lived for a number of years in Fifth avenue and her salons were attended by art and radical leaders of all classes. Frank Tannenbaum and Big Bill Haywood were among those who frequented the gatherings there of those interested in verse libre and modernistic painting.

Her friends say she told them that Lujan had divorced his Indian wife a week before the marriage.

Chicago, April 28.—Tests of ethylene as an anesthetic in 106 surgical cases at the Presbyterian hospital according to A. B. Lockhardt, discoverer of the anesthetic properties of the gas and professor at the University of Chicago, have demonstrated that it surpasses both ether and nitrous oxide.

Dr. A. J. Carlson of the physiology department of the University of Chicago voiced the opinion that in the light of the results already achieved, ethylene will probably supplant either ether and nitrous oxide because it induced relaxation.

DEATHS

Waggener. Thomas Tilford Waggener, a lifelong resident of Morgan county, died at 11:45 o'clock Saturday morning at his home, 207 West College street. The remains were removed to the Gillham funeral home, where funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, in charge of Rev. C. D. Robertson. Interment will be in Hebron cemetery.

Mrs. Wagner was born in the Litterberry vicinity on May 19, 1844. He was first married to Miss Matilda Denney at Litterberry, where he resided for many years. Following the death of his first wife, he was married in February, 1914 to Mrs. Augusta Colby, who survives him together with the following children:

George A. Waggener of Sinclair; Mrs. Lou I. Waterfield of Burlington, Iowa; Mrs. Adeline Farrout, of Sinclair; Mrs. Carrie Leet, of Palmyra, Mo.; William Waggener, of Virginia and Frank Waggener of Sinclair. He is also survived by two step-children Mrs. Edna C. McCracken of Alma, Mich., and Mrs. Olive M. Joy of Chicago, and one brother, Andrew Waggener of Texas.

MANY RECORDS FALL IN ANNUAL DRAKE MEET

ILLINOIS U. SETS WORLD'S RECORD IN THE 440 RELAY

Step Distance in 42 3-10 Seconds—Angier Sets New American Javelin Mark at 203 Feet, 9 1/2 Inches—Ten Drake Relay Records Were Also Broken During the Meet

(By The Associated Press)
DES MOINES, Iowa, April 28.—A world's record was smashed, one—possibly two—American records were shattered and ten Drake records were broken today in the fourteenth annual Drake relay carnival which attracted more than 1,300 track and field stars, the greatest entry list in the history of the event. Perfect weather with a warm sun and a track lightning fast, made conditions favorable for the wholesale shattering of records.

The world's record to fall was made by the crack University of Illinois team in the 440 yard relay, the time being 43 3-10, a tenth of a second faster than the distance has ever been covered before.

An American record in the javelin was established by Milton Angier, of Illinois, holder of the mark, who heaved the shaft 203 feet, 9 1/2 inches, bettering his record established in the Drake game a year ago by an even foot.

In addition to these undisputed records, athletic authorities tonight were unanimous in their opinion that Illinois should be credited with a world's record in the 880 yard relay, which the Illini quartet won in 1:27 5-10. This performance is one tenth lower than the world's record created by B. F. Wevers, Jr., F. K. Lovejoy, H. Ray and Edward Parrell in 1921. This same quartet held the world's record for the 440 made in 1921, which Illinois shattered. No other college team, the coaches claim, has covered the distance as fast as Illinois.

The coaches also claim a world's inter-collegiate record for the University of Iowa team in the mile relay, which the Hawkeyes reeled off in 3:16 9-10, one tenth of a second slower than the world's record, made by C. B. Rogers, Earl Eby, Lawrence Brown and Robert Maxam, competing as an American Legion team in 1921.

The new records established for the Drake games follow:

Half mile high school relay—Won by University High school, Chicago. Time: 1:35 1-5.

Two mile high school relay—Won by Northeast high school of Kansas City, Mo. Time: 8:25.

Discus throw—Won by Platter, Denver University. Distance: 138 feet, 1-4 inches.

440 yard relay—Won by Illinois. Time: 43 3-10.

400 yard high school shuttle race—Won by University High school, Chicago. Time: 4:19-10.

Two mile college relay—Won by Monmouth college, Monmouth, Ills. Time: 8:10 5-10.

880 yard relay—Won by Illinois. Time: 1:27 5-10.

Javelin throw—Won by Angier of Illinois. Distance: 203 feet, 9 1/2 in.

Pole vault—Won by Brownell of Illinois. Height: 12 feet, 10 inches.

One mile university relay—Won by Iowa. Time: 3:16 9-10.

In addition to this list of broken records, Lester Irwin, the Kansas Aggies' sprinter did the Drake record for the 100 yard dash, breaking the tape in 9 4-5, the same time made by Jackson Scholz, the University of Missouri flier in 1920.

Illinois Carries Off Relays.
Illinois carried off the lions share of the university relays, winning three of the five. The Illini captured the 440 and 880 yards events and finished the day by winning the four mile relay.

Illinois also had two winners in the special events—Angier in the javelin and Brownell who broke the pole vault record.

Michigan triumphed in the two mile relay chiefly because of the thrilling race of Reinke in the last lap, while Iowa was without serious opposition in the one mile relay.

In the college relays, Monmouth, Washash and Butler divided honors by winning one each. Florida and Oregon failed to break into the winning column.

In the individual events, Kansas in addition to Illinois produced the only double winner. Merwyn Graham of Kansas won the running broad jump with a leap of 22 feet, 7 inches, while Poor, also of Kansas, captured the high jump, clearing the bar at six feet, 4 inches. Towler of Minnesota won the 120 yard high hurdles, leaping the barriers in 15 1-5.

Two surprises of the special events was the defeat of Van Orden of Michigan in the shot put and the victory of Brownell of Illinois in the pole vault. Hartman of Nebraska won the shot put in a heap of 41 feet, 11 inches while Brownell triumphed over Van Orden, the favorite, in the pole vault with a leap of 12 feet, 10 inches.

Joe Ray of the Illinois Athletic club, holder of nine world's records, ran the fastest mile traveled in this country this year when he defeated

GLASSE'S PITCHING TOO MUCH FOR I. S. D.

Springfield Hurler Puzzle to Local Batsmen—Carlson Was Effective Until Last Two Innings

Yesterday in the opening game of the season the School for Deaf baseball team received a decisive trimming from the Springfield high school. Not considering the score the game was interesting and hard fought. The final figures were 8 to 3.

George Carlson, leading pitcher on the I. S. D. team was Burns' hurling selection. He was not in his usual form, due to a sore arm, however, he pitched great ball during most of the game. He was opposed by Glasse, whose offerings were quite a puzzle to the I. S. D. batsmen. They couldn't bunt their hits, due to some classy fielding and to the hurling of Glasse. They were fighting to bat in enough runs to make it easy for Carlson, but the Capital City twirler was strong in the pinches.

The visitors made their first run in the first when Meyers singled to left and was advanced to third on a sacrifice hit and a passed ball. He scored on Thompson's double to left. In the same inning the I. S. D. made one tally. Miller tripled to left center and was sent home on Schrader's sacrifice. After the first it was a pitcher's duel between Carlson and Glasse. In the fifth, the visitors added another run. But the I. S. D. evened the count in the seventh when Massinkoff doubled and scored on Dillard's scratch hit. In the eighth Carlson began to show signs of weakening. The Capital City boys got to his offerings. By some clever work with the stick they piled up a total of six runs in the last two rounds of the game.

In the seventh chances appeared bright for the I. S. D. Carlson opened with a hit; Massinkoff doubled to right; Schrader hit to Meyers, who nailed Carlson, scoring Massinkoff and sending Miller to third. Schrader sent a hot one down the third base line. It was grabbed by Gugski, and Miller was caught at the plate. Mannen struck out and the chances faded away.

In the 9th the I. S. D. started a rally which was short-lived. With two out Dillard doubled to center and scored on Schrader's long hit to left. Cole batting for Mannen ended the game with striking out.

The I. S. D. play at Blue Mound next Saturday.

Recently I finished working one of the most remarkable series in the history of baseball from an attendance standpoint.

Opening the season at New York, I went out to look the park over the day before the barrier was sprung. The new Yankee stadium amazed me.

"Well they have finally built a park big enough. They never will have to turn them away with this plant," I said to myself. The very next day I saw such a thing happen.

Boston opened in New York to 75,000 people lacking a few hundred. The day following the opening a crowd of 10,000 looked like a mere handful. The third game drew 15,000. Boston closed its engagement on Saturday to 50,000.

Just think of it, in the opening series of the season, 150,000 people viewed the first four games. In the very first game played in the new Yankee stadium it was necessary to close all gates a half hour before game time.

Then Washington came into New York for a Sunday game that packed the park to capacity. So that in five consecutive days I worked before a total of 200,000 people. Some business.

Mr. Ebbetts knew something when he said baseball was in its infancy.

ROUTT WANTS TO PLAY BASEBALL
The Routt college baseball team announces they would like to arrange games with any high school teams in this section, the games to be played on Saturday.

Any teams who wish to arrange games with them should address Edward Cleary, 212 Sandusky street, Jacksonville.

Clyde L. Vickery, who spent his boyhood days in Jacksonville is back in the city for a short visit with friends and relatives. Mr. Vickery now has a position with the Burlington railroad in Chicago.

This committee will meet at the Chamber of Commerce at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening to lay its plans. At the same time the board of directors of the Morgan county fair association will be in session, and it is hoped that during the evening, the two bodies will hold a conference, at which the building of a barn at the track and other matters will be considered.

The county fair executive board will open bids for the printing of the catalogue at the meeting Monday evening. Others matters of importance in the holding of the 1923

Years of Retirement are Not Slowing Old Champ

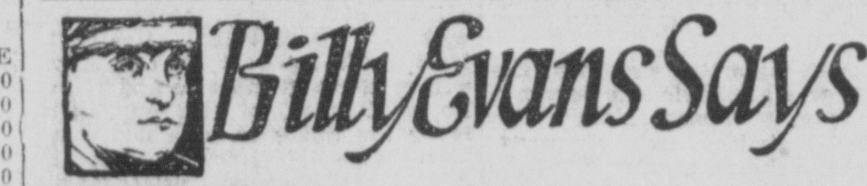

MRS. MAY SUTTON BUNDY

Los Angeles.—Like old wine, some people improve with age.

Nineteen years ago May Sutton flashed across the tennis horizon as the women's national singles champion. Not long after that she married Tom Bundy, who at that time was himself a racketeer of no mean ability. She then practically retired from the game.

However, a couple of years or so ago, the call of the pastime again played a sweet refrain in her ears. She brushed the dust from off her racket, and came out on the courts once more.

Billy Evans Says

"Baseball is in its infancy."

Not so many years ago Charley Ebbetts, owner of the Brooklyn club, uttered the magic words at a baseball banquet.

"Baseball is in its infancy."

That was the punch line of Mr. Ebbetts' speech. Perhaps no after-dinner utterance was more widely ridiculed. Baseball was believed to have reached its peak.

Developments of the past few years, the last few days in particular, make it seem as if Mr. Ebbetts knew something when he insisted baseball was in its swaddling clothes.

Recently I finished working one of the most remarkable series in the history of baseball from an attendance standpoint.

ILLINOIS LOSES BASEBALL GAME

Defeated by Shurtleff by a Score of 24 to 11—Game Was Loosely Played by Both Teams.

To top off her victory over Shurtleff in the dual track meet Saturday, Illinois college presented the visitors with the ball game played immediately after the track meet was finished.

After blanking Shurtleff in the first Illinois scored nine runs. After that they were able to gather just two more, the Coach Harmon used every man he had in uniform.

Ineffective pitching was the main cause of Illinois' defeat, tho there also was some loose fielding thrown in by the support. After the first inning the Illinois batsmen seemed to lose their eyes and were unable to solve the offerings of the opposing hurlers. The score:

FIGHTING SPIRIT SAVES YANKEES

Rye, England, April 28.—Fine competitive spirit saved the American amateur golfers from defeat today in their first battle on the English fairways.

In the morning they suffered a severe reverse, but in the afternoon they made a fighting comeback and ended the day all square with the stars of the Oxford and Cambridge golfing society, with whom they played a dozen foursomes.

Six four-ball foursomes were played in the forenoon, of which the natives won four. With a hefty British luncheon under their belts and the will to win under their caps, the Yankees returned to the windy, sandy links in afternoon before losing a match won four straight, or sufficient to square matters with their hosts. The afternoon matches were two-ball foursomes.

One thousand spectators or thereabouts motored to this ancient town by the English channel to see the debut of the Americans and most of them walked on the wake of Jess Sweetzer, the American champion, who paired with Francis Ouimet, was triumphant in both his morning and afternoon matches.

St. Louis.—The great value of George Sisler to the St. Louis Browns has already made itself apparent by his absence from the game.

It is said that the Browns have already started negotiations with several clubs in an effort to secure a first sacker, among them being the Boston Red Sox.

Lee Fohl thinks mightily well of George Burns and has expressed a desire that the Browns land him. Overtures made the Red Sox management, however, have not met with approval.

If the figure is right, it is believed Owner Frazee of the Boston club will part with Burns. With plenty of outfielders, Chance could use Joe Harris at first base—a position he played with the Cleveland club.

U. S. ASSOCIATION GIVEN MEMBERSHIP
New York, April 28.—The United States lawn tennis association has been admitted to membership in the International Lawn Tennis Federation, according to communication received by the association today from Henry Walle, federation president. The entry of the American tennis organization into the international body, made after ten years of negotiation, marks one of the greatest steps in tennis history.

RAIN STOPS GAME BETWEEN ILLINOIS AND OHIO
Columbus, Ohio, April 28.—Rain today caused cancellation of the scheduled western conference baseball game between Ohio State and Illinois.

ILLINOIS DEFEATED SHURTLEFF IN DUAL MEET SATURDAY 71-47

Blue and White Without the Services of Mellon Take Visitors Into Camp—Several Races Were Exciting—Illinois Shows Some Talent—Shurtleff Started Well

In an interesting dual meet Illinois College triumphed over Shurtleff college of Alton on Illinois field Saturday afternoon by a score of 71 to 47.

When the first event, the 100 yard dash was finished, it didn't look so good for the Blue and White, as Shurtleff took both first and second. In the second event, the mile run, Shurtleff also took first, giving her an 12 to 3 lead.

Then Illinois by taking both first and second in the pole vault jumped into the lead and was never headed. She kept piling up points by fives and eights until it was soon only a question of how many she would win by.

One of the most exciting races of the afternoon was the two mile run. Usually this is a rather dull race. Yesterday, however, it created more enthusiasm than any event of the day.

OXFORD FAILS TO WIN 2 MILE RELAY

Is Defeated by Penn State in Sensational Race—Winners Are Forced To Set New World's Record for the Event.

Philadelphia, April 28.—England, represented by Oxford University, failed today in a gallant attempt to capture for a second time the two mile college relay championship of America, but the Great British quartet forced an even more brilliant Pennsylvania state team to set a new world's record to win before the Union Jack bowed to the Stars and Stripes. It was the outstanding event on the closing day's card of the twenty-ninth annual University of Pennsylvania relay carnival.

Allen Helfrich, national half mile champion, running the last relay for Penn State, broke the tape nearly thirty yards ahead of Milligan, the Oxford captain, in 7 minutes, 48 4-5 seconds, bettering by 3-5 of a second the former world's record, established at last year's races by Pennsylvania.

The international slate for the two day carnival showed two victories for America and one for England, the Britons scoring their only triumph yesterday in the sprint medley while C. B. Emergan, their distance star, was badly beaten by his Yankee rivals in the two mile individual race.

Other major college relay championships today were captured by Lafayette, in the half mile; Syracuse in the one mile, and the United States Naval Academy in the four mile test. The other 1923 relay college championships of America were represented by Georgetown in the distance medley, and Pennsylvania in the quarter mile, in addition to Oxford's sprint medley victory.

Rain, which marred the closing part of the program, drove most of a crowd of nearly 40,000 from the stands and prevented all further chance of record-breaking for the day. It started to fall as the last lap of the two mile relay was run.

Navy conquered the field of six distance teams in the four mile classic, but the two western entries, Wisconsin and Chicago universities, dropped out in the last mile when the difficult going forced them far into the ruck. It was a three cornered race from the start between Navy, Columbia and Georgetown, with the first two alternating in setting the pace.

CHANDLERVILLE WON CASS COUNTY MEET

Take Annual Event With a Total of 48 Points—Virginia Was Second With 41—Arenville and Ashland Third and Fourth Respective.

Virginia, April 28.—Chandlerville high school won the annual Cass County athletic meet here this afternoon in an exciting contest with Virginia high, scoring a total of 48 points. Virginia scored 41 points, Arenville, 16 and Ashland, 12.

Chandlerville had a well balanced team and with the Cook, Thers and McDonald starting. The winners took eight firsts.

Virginia high was a close second with 41 points. It was the ability of the Virginia team to place in every event that kept her in the running to the last.

John L. Mitchell, director of athletics of the Jacksonville high school was referee and starter. The summaries:

50 yard dash—First, W. Cook (Chandlerville); second, Taylor, Virginia; third, DeFries, Virginia. Time 5-4-5.

Pole Vault—First, Rice, Arenville; second, Way, Virginia; third, William Cook, Chandlerville. Height: 9 feet 9 inches.

White Sox Have Great Chance to Win, Says Umpire

NEA. Chicago—"Don't overlook the Chicago White Sox in doping out the American league pennant," says Barry McCormick, National league umpire.

McCormick worked in the spring series between the Giants and the White Sox, being the National league umpire. He thinks the Sox have a mighty formidable ball club.

"The White Sox certainly looked good to me in the series with the Giants," says McCormick. "Gleason's club made the world champs step the distance in every game."

"The Chicago club plays smart baseball. Of course that isn't hard to understand when you remember Schalk is back of the plate and Eddie Collins at second."

"Chicago is going to have better pitching than most of the big league clubs will get. Gleason is a pitching staff that with the exception of Faber, is made up of young blood, capable of standing a lot of work. Of the new men Mack and Duff look mighty good, last year Gleason developed Robertson, Leverette and Ted Blankenship."

"Kamm is a great ball player. He is a wonderful fielder, acts like a smart ball player, and is going to hit even better than predicted. If his showing against the Giants is a fair example of what he can do."

"The White Sox certainly look like a mighty good ball club and I wish my old pal, Kid Gleason, all the luck in the world."

Toluca Won Lombard Meet

Galesburg, Ill., April 28.—Toluca high school, largely through the performance of Diczien in the dashes won the annual Lombard interschool track and field games meet here this afternoon. Diczien won three firsts, taking all sprint events. He tied the record in the 100 yard dash and broke the 50 and 220 yard dash marks.

Peoria Central and Champaign high led for second place with eight points each.

In an exhibition running high jump Harold Osborne of the I. A. C. leaped six feet 7-8 inches, a new world's record for the jump.

JULES GOUX WILL INVADE AMERICA

One of Best Known Foreign Pilots Will Race at Indianapolis—Will Use Schmidt-Special

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Jules Goux, best known of the foreign pilots who will invade America to compete in the International 500-mile dash for $50,000 to be held at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, Decoration Day, May 30, has entered a Schmidt-Special in the coming event.

Goux was a member of the original French contingent that came to America in 1913 to compete for racing supremacy of the world on the Hoosier oval. He couldn't understand a single word of English but just to demonstrate that driving a racing automobile is internationally common, he stepped out and took the trophy for the year. Goux's winning average in his Peugeot in 1913 was 76.92 miles an hour. The next year he returned at the wheel of a Peugeot and although his average for the five century was better than three miles an hour faster than his winning tour, his place was fourth, with Rene Thomas, another Frenchman, the victor. The 1915 and 1916 events were staged without the services of Goux and in 1917 and 1918 there were no races, because of the war.

But in 1919 he drove a Peugeot into third place at an average of 85.94 miles an hour, the most rapid time of his career on the Indianapolis oval.

After 300 miles of furious driving in 1921 his car broke up and in 1921 Goux did not attend the big race. Last year he changed from his first love, the Peugeots, to captain of the Ballot team. But mechanical trouble ran him to the grandstand early in the event.

Now Goux is coming to America with a racing car that is the secret of racing France. The motor, designed by M. Schmidt, a famous engineer, is said to be operated without valves, and has numerous startling innovations. The foreign correspondent of the Speedway has been unable to get intimate details of the unusual car, because patents have not been granted and the owners of the car are reluctant to divulge any information concerning their creation.

Goux, whose reputation as an engineer and mechanic is even more renowned than as a sensational pilot, is confident that the new Schmidt Special will be a success.

Coming to Indianapolis brings about a reunion for Goux. The French pilot wedded a pretty Indianapolis girl and Goux and his wife are always anxious to get back to the Hoosier capital.

Luck Plays Heavy Role In Golf Famous Jock Hutchison Comments On This Feature of Game

VICTORY SUDDENLY TURNS TO DEFEAT IN A BALL GAME THROUGH SOME FLUKE OF LUCK

A LUCKY BREAK IN FOOTBALL HAS SCORED MANY TOUCHDOWNS AGAINST A SUPERIOR TEAM

BY BILLY EVANS

Luck is a very important, if not the deciding factor in almost every branch of sport.

In baseball, a team that looks the winner all the way suddenly, sees almost certain victory turned into defeat, because some player misjudges a fly or makes a costly wild throw that turns the tide.

In football, the superior team is often beaten because the opposition which has been unable to make any headway, recovers a fumble and has some player run the length of the field for a touchdown.

What holds good for baseball and football also applies to golf.

The breaks are often the deciding factor in many an important golf match, in which there is but little to choose between the players.

The Part Luck Plays

The breaks invariably seem to favor the winner, while the loser is always the victim of hard luck. Breaks go with and help to make a winner.

In 1921, Jock Hutchison won the British open championship. Last year Hutchison lost by a stroke to Walter Hagen. Had Hutchison won the British open for the second time in succession it would have been a feat decidedly out of the ordinary.

Recently I was discussing with Hutchison his play in the British open. Naturally I said a lot of nice things about Jock's showing, all of which was merited. His viewpoint, however, rather surprised me.

"I really played better golf last year than I did in 1921, yet I failed to win," said Hutchison.

Several times in the 1921 tournament luck was with me. When a fellow holes out in one, and gets a two on his next hole, just failing to repeat the holeing out in one, he is getting his share of luck. In several other instances the breaks were with me.

"Last year I played even better golf, but the breaks always seemed to be against me."

"In the hole that really decided the match, Walter Hagen, who won the championship, made exactly the same shot as I did. My shot went over the green and into the rough. I took a seven on the hole."

Hagen Got the Break

"Along comes Hagen with a shot that seemed headed in the same direction. Instead of nestling in the rough, as my shot did, the ball struck a fence paling and bounded back onto the green. Hagen made the hole in four."

"Since I lost the championship by only one stroke, it is a very easy matter to figure what a costly hole that proved for my title aspirations. The break in luck smiled on Hagen, he won. Dame Fortune frowned on me, I lost. The break in luck plays a prominent part in almost every championship. Sarazen had his share in the national open last year. I have had my share in every big tournament that I have won."

"Winning a golf championship calls for consistently brilliant golf, plus a good share of luck."

TY COBB FIGURES ON SETTING NEW MARKS THIS YEAR

NEA. Detroit—It's a cinch that Ty Cobb, great as he is, cannot go on forever.

With that in mind Cobb is hopeful of turning several stunts this summer that will give him undisputed right to a number of records.

It is questionable if Cobb will play regularly over three years more. He admits that old Father Time is beginning to get in his work, that the legs are not as supple as they once were, although the eyes seem as good as ever.

Here are a few things that Cobb hopes to do this year:

1. Bat 300 or better. So doing will break the tie that now exists with Hans Wagner, each having turned that trick for seventeen consecutive years.

Make 200 or more hits. That will also break a tie with Wagner. Each has turned such a feat in eight of their campaigns on the diamond.

If Cobb should pass the 400 mark it would also break two other ties. Cobb and Jesse Burkett have each had three seasons in which they bettered the 400 mark. Like Burkett, Cobb has twice bettered the 400 mark in consecutive years.

Thus, it is evident, that aside from managing the Tigers, Cobb has a big year ahead if he is to turn some of the tricks that he has in mind.

Municipal Golf Course Open Today

Municipal Golf course will open for play today on temporary greens and tees.

Golfers will note several improvements. New markers have been erected back of each green showing the number of the hole. New flags, marking the hole have also been put in place.

The tee boxes have been painted and put in first class condition. Caddy badges have been given out to a number of boys and they are anxiously awaiting the opportunity to serve the golfers.

The temporary greens are in good condition. The fairways have been rolled and the grass cut. Everything is in readiness now for the regular opening of the course May 1st.

PILLETTE WINS HIS FIRST FROM BROWNS

Sets Them for First Time in Major League Career—Heilman Hits Safely in Eleventh Consecutive Game.

DETROIT, Mich., April 28.—Herman Pillette beat St. Louis for the first time in his major league career, today, Detroit winning 4 to 1. Elam Van Gilder was hit freely and hard when hits meant runs, allowing besides Veatch's home run doubles by Cobb, Hane, Heilmann and Weedall. It was the eleventh consecutive game in which Heilmann has hit safely.

Pillette wobbled only in the seventh when singled by McManus and Severed and a double by Gerber resulted in one run. A fast double, Rigney to Pratt broke up the threatened St. Louis rally.

COBB PUT ONE OVER ON WASHINGTON

NEA. Washington.—It is beginning to look very much as if Washington got all the worst of the trade with Detroit, in which it turned over Pitcher Francis for Shortstop Gagnon.

Because Peckinbaugh had an erratic year at short in 1922 the Nationals sought to be fortified in that position. Owner Griffith sought a promising young shortstop.

Detroit seemed to offer such an individual in Gagnon. Coming direct to Detroit from Holy Cross last June Gagnon was sent to Rochester in the International league, Rigney by his fine work having won the regular berth with the Tigers.

Gagnon had fine season with Rochester and pronounced ripe for fast company. Cobb was willing to turn him over to Washington but insisted on Pitcher Francis in return. Griffith finally consented.

Now he thinks he got the worst of it, and Griffith, he is known, has been worsted in few trades.

Gagnon has the ability but has a bad knee. While at college he started on the gridiron as well as diamond. An injured knee sustained in a game with Harvard, seems to be seriously handicapping his career as a big leaguer.

Fortunately Peckinbaugh looks to be set for a big year at short.

CONNOLLY MUSES ON BASEBALL'S

NEA. New York—Tommy Connolly, dean of the American league umpires, was one of the officials selected to open the new Yankee stadium.

It is a rather strange coincidence that 29 years ago, almost to the day, Connolly served in a similar capacity when the American league made its New York debut.

"Some difference between the two openings," remarked Connolly as he surveyed the crowd of 7,427 people, the biggest crowd that ever attended a ball game.

"Twenty years ago a crowd of about 12,000 people packed the small stands of the old New York American league park. I was regarded as a gala event."

"In those days the Giants had a monopoly on the baseball situation in New York. As a matter of fact in an effort to keep the American league out of the big city, the National league club had an option on practically every site available for a ball park."

"The American league park in those days was built on practically a foundation of stone. Often the light layer of soil that covered the infield would wear thin and disclose the rock base."

"Never did I think I would umpire before 75,000 people. The crowd at the opening game is certainly a great tribute to the fondness of the American public for the game."

MURRAY HOLDS YANKS TO FIVE HITS—SOX WIN

BOSTON, April 28.—Murray held the champion Yankees to five hits today, Boston winning the rubber game of the series, 5 to 3. Joe Bush was hit safely eight times, including four double in the fifth and his double to right scored 2 runs. Bush fanned eight. Boston gave Murray brilliant support.

CHICAGO, April 28.—Chicago won its second game of the season today when they defeated Cleveland six to three. Robertson pitched in the form until the eighth when he weakened, and walked three men. Paul Fielding by Collins and McClellan who replaced Johnson at short however checked the rally.

TIMBERED TRACTS VALUABLE TO STATE

Dean Cochran Shows that Forests Attract Many Visitors to Colorado—Trees Save Relation to Water Supply.

Dean Cochran, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Cochran of this city, who took special training in forestry has for more than a year past been in the forestry service of the U. S. in Colorado.

The following paragraphs are taken from an article recently written by Mr. Cochran for a Colorado paper in emphasizing the value of forests:

"Colorado possesses an invaluable asset in its forests. These forests contain billions of board feet of timber which are becoming of constantly increasing value as the growing shortage of lumber and similar products becomes a factor in our economic life.

"Of equal importance is the value of Colorado forests for watershed protection. Approximately 3,000,000 acres of agricultural land in the state are under irrigation and depend for success on the water furnished by mountain streams. These streams also furnish water and light for our cities and in many places the mechanical power of industry. Without the protection and regulation of forest covers the even, sustained flow of these streams would be threatened and with it many of the phases of both city and rural life.

"Forests attract visitors. 'Forests are one of the biggest attractions in Colorado to the visitor from other states. These visitors annually leave millions of dollars with the merchants of our cities and many of them return as residents of the state. As such they are a powerful factor in the upbuilding of the commonwealth.

"These same timbered tracts are our own recreation grounds to which we turn for rest and the healing which can come only from God's great out of doors.

"Forests, despite their importance and value, have fared ill at the hand of man. Apparently limitless, they have never in the least appealed to men as needing care or protection. Consequently they have been cut and burned to such an extent that not only the remaining timber must be handled wisely, but new forests planted.

"Fires are preventable. 'Fire burns more than 7,500,000 acres of timbered land every year and in spite of every effort at suppression will continue to convert forests into barren wastes until greater care is used in its prevention.

"Fires are not the result of an unkind providence, but of a careless hand. If forests mean to Colorado timber, crops, business and health, they justify the care and protection which will insure their perpetuation."

C. OF C. WILL SOON CLOSE FISCAL YEAR

Second Year of Organization's Work in City Ends May 31—Much Committee Work Remains to Be Done—New Directors to Be Chosen

The second fiscal year of the Chamber of Commerce will close May 31, and plans are under way to close up the work of a number of committees and complete the routine work of the year before that date. On the second Thursday in May, primary ballots for the nomination of directors will be sent out from headquarters. Each ballot will be a list of the 560 members of the organization, and from this list the members will select twelve, who will be candidates for the six places on the board of directors.

The directors whose terms expire this year are: H. M. Capps, E. E. Crabtree, J. W. Walton, T. A. Chapin, Henry Frisch and J. S. Hackett. On the third Thursday in May, ballots will be sent out containing a list of the twelve men selected in the primary. Following the election of the six directors will occur the stock taking and annual meeting of the chamber.

However, much work remains to be done before the end of May. The tourist signs on the city tour and the large signs at the main entrances of the city are to be erected. Outstanding dues of the organization must be collected. The traffic problem as handled by the committee must be presented to the city council and action secured from that body. The secretary of the Chamber of Commerce expects also to prepare a report covering the two years' work of the organization.

ATTENDED UNITED WAR VET BANQUET

Col. and Mrs. O. C. Smith recently returned from Chicago, where they attended the banquet given by the state officers of the United Spanish War Veterans, which was held at the LaSalle hotel Wednesday evening, April 25, in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the declaration of war with Spain.

There were more than six hundred guests present from all parts of the state, twenty-two of the state camps being represented. The principal speaker of the evening was Congressman-at-large Rathbone. General George Bell, Jr., and the Cuban Ambassador at Chicago (whose name is unpronounceable) were guests of the evening. The meeting was presided over by Department Commander John S. Holschlag.

It was voted to make this an annual affair.

THWARTED ATTEMPT AT STORE ROBBERY

The Mackey and Davison grocery store at 741 East North street was robbed some time between 3 and 4 o'clock Saturday morning, by breaking a glass door on the east side of the building.

Police passing the store at 3:10 discovered nothing wrong at that time. Frank McKinney, Charles Cobb and Ira Eaton, who work at the C. P. & St. L. shops, passed the place and noticed the condition of things, at once notified the police.

It is believed that the appearance of these men must have frightened the lookout, who gave the alarm, as nothing could be missed except a few cigars and some candy.

It will be recalled that this store has been entered several times before. "Red" Hair is now serving sentence in the penitentiary for robbing this place, and it has not been so very long ago, since thieves tampered with the safe, and left it in such a shape that it was necessary to cut holes in the door before the lock could be repaired.

Ford Roadster Found The Ford roadster, belonging to J. C. Capps, which was stolen Friday evening from the corner of Westminster and West State streets, was found by the police about 2 o'clock Saturday morning on North Prairie street just off West State street.

The thieves had made away with the tools, chains, and batteries.

GEORGE BROWN LIKES HEAVY JEWELRY

George Brown, colored, evidently has a penchant for heavy jewelry.

Recently Miss Irma Fox, who owns the building just west of the public library, which was recently wrecked by fire, had occasion to visit her property, when she arrived, she found a white man hauling away the radiators from the place. On being questioned as to his authority, he stated that Brown had hired him to do the hauling.

Miss Fox located Brown on the phone, and represented that she wished to buy some second-hand radiators, and made an engagement to meet him and examine them. When she went she took as an escort, Officer Baker, and as a result Brown was taken before Justice of the Peace Bayha, Wednesday, and gave bond for his appearance before the next grand jury.

EXCAVATE FOR NEW FOUNTAIN AT I. S. D.

Workmen Find Bed of Old Fountain in Front of Main Entrance As They Dig for Foundation of Ornamental Structure

Workmen are engaged at the School for the Deaf, excavating for the new fountain, which is to be erected on the site of the old fountain in front of the door to the main entrance. It is planned to have, in connection with this fountain, a fish and lily pond, with a statuary fountain in the middle.

While digging the bed for the new fountain, the men uncovered the shell of an old fountain that stood on the same spot a great many years ago. C. P. Gillett states, that to the best of his knowledge, the old fountain was erected along in the early seventies. At that time the street that is now known as Woodland Place, extended thru the institution grounds from West College avenue to West State street.

The overflow from the fountain was piped to a brick trough near the corner of West State street and Webster avenue, for the purpose of watering horses, and was considered quite a convenience, but finally became a nuisance. In those days, all cattle ran upon the streets in Jacksonville, and the cattle would congregate about the trough most of the hot days until the place became offensive.

MRS. MARY REYNOLDS CAME NEAR INJURY

Rescued From Place of Danger on Railroad Tracks by William Carroll.

William Carroll of South Clay avenue, a motorman for the Jacksonville Railway Co., by prompt action yesterday rescued Mrs. Mary Reynolds of Murrayville from an oncoming freight train.

Mrs. Reynolds who is partially crippled, had reached the city on the 1 p. m. train from Murrayville. She was crossing the tracks intending to take a street car and did not see a freight train coming from the north on the C. B. & Q. tracks. Several persons saw Mrs. Reynolds' danger and screamed warnings.

Mr. Carroll, who was making ready his car for return to the west line, saw the danger and rushed to Mrs. Reynolds' aid. He seized her and pulled her to safety just in time.

A number of persons who witnessed the happening for a moment thought that both Mrs. Reynolds and her rescuer would be either killed or seriously injured. It was a brave act on Mr. Carroll's part and quickly done.

FORMER WHITE HALL RESIDENT IS DEAD

White Hall, April 28.—According to word just received from Oklahoma City in the form of a letter from Hardin Stout, the death of Mrs. Charles W. Sperry occurred there on the 19th last. The deceased has relatives scattered over central Illinois, in Greene, Jersey Macoupin and Sangamon counties. Her husband died about ten years ago while the family was residing at Kane, after a residence for a number of years near White Hall. He was an old soldier and his remains were buried at Kane.

After his death the widow and three daughters at home went to California, where they remained until three years ago when they located at Oklahoma City. Her age was about 77 years. The children are Walter of California, Edward, Charles and Mrs. Frank Stout of Oklahoma City; Lucy, Mae and Kelly who made their home with their mother. The burial was at Oklahoma City.

DAYLIGHT SAVING PLAN BEGINS TODAY IN EASTERN STATES

Three Hundred and Fifty Cities Adopt the Plan by Local Ordinances—Clocks Will be Advanced One Hour at 2 o'Clock Today—Objection Mostly in the Rural Districts

NEW YORK, April 28.—Daylight saving time will begin at 2 A. M. tomorrow under local ordinances in about 350 cities and towns in a group of eastern states, as well as a few scattered middlewestern cities. Massachusetts is the only state having a daylight statute. The new time will continue until 2 A. M., September 30.

New York and New Jersey are the principal states in the eastern zone in which, under local ordinances, clocks will be advanced one hour, while about 50 scattered cities and towns in Eew England, outside of Massachusetts, will observe daylight saving either by local ordinance or by common consent. Daylight saving throughout Massachusetts was assured by the recent action of the house in refusing to consider further the repeal of the present statute.

In Connecticut attempts to prevent daylight saving time failed earlier this month when the state senate defeated an anti-daylight saving bill, which the house previously had passed. The bill provided for a fine of $100 or ten days' imprisonment, or both, for the wilful display of any but standard time in public places. Some members of the legislature considered that the bill even applied to wrist watches. Members from the rural districts opposed any change in time.

The common council of Hartford recently voted for daylight saving, after the failure of an attempt in the legislature to have a referendum on the question. Hartford, so far as known, is the only municipality in the state to take this action. Last year such cities as New Haven, Hartford, New London, Norwalk, Bridgeport, New Britain, Meriden, Waterbury and others in the manufacturing districts observed daylight saving by common consent, or by earlier working hours, without advancing clocks.

In Delaware, where Wilmington and Newport last year observed daylight saving time under local ordinances, an anti-daylight bill this year passed the legislature and became law without the governor's signature. There was talk of the possibility of court action against the law, which compels courts, public offices and banks to operate on eastern standard time.

Tentative arrangements have been made by the Merchants' association of New York to have Marcus M. Marks, president of the National Daylight Saving association, who launched the movement in 1913, broadcast throughout the United States by radio an address on the advantages of the new time, with the view of augmenting the number of cities which have adopted it.

England and Belgium are among some of the European countries which observe five (Continued on Page 9)

FRANKLIN MUSICAL CLUB MET YESTERDAY

Clever Program Given by Associate Members at Regular Meeting Yesterday Afternoon.

The members of the Franklin Musical club met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Miller. The program of the afternoon was in charge of the associate members of the organization, none of whom have special musical ability but who nevertheless carried out a program which was exceedingly humorous and entertaining.

The opening number was a violin selection, which was followed by a reading by Mrs. J. E. Sinclair. The theme of this reading was "Music Hath Charms," and in giving it Mrs. Sinclair impersonated "Miss O'Grady."

An instrumental duet by Mrs. Oscar Harmon and Mrs. Frank Wilson was followed by a group of musical readings by Mrs. I. L. Sears. The next number announced was a piano duet, by "Madame Calhoun and Madam Sarcant." The real performers in this musical "stunt" were Mrs. I. L. Sears and Mrs. Henry Lukeman.

Next came a piano solo by Mrs. C. E. Cussins and a reading by Mrs. Glenn Harney. The second stunt number was a concert by the "Franklin Musical Club Orchestra." Mrs. I. L. Sears played the violin, Mrs. J. E. Sinclair the guitar, Mrs. Jerry Ryan the whistle and Mrs. Henry Lukeman the piano. "Turkey in the Straw" and other popular airs were played with artistic effect. Still a third stunt was an "organ recital." The harmonious strains of an organ sounded from the dining room, the music coming from a small hand organ operated by someone especially proficient in the handling of this instrument.

The closing number was a violin selection. One new member, Mrs. Fred Burch, was taken into the club at the brief business session which followed the program.

The concert which was given under auspices of the club Friday evening by the woman's College Glee club was attended by a large number despite the unfavorable weather conditions. After the concert light refreshments were served and a brief time spent socially. The Glee club girls were accompanied by Franklin by Madame Colard, Miss Inaette Powell and Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Powell.

TREND OF BONDS

Babson Discusses Factors That Govern Market

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., April 28, 1923.—Bonds have declined since last September until at the low point of March 27, they were back to the level of December, 1921. Investors who have been somewhat dismayed by this turn of affairs will be particularly interested in a statement issued today by Roger W. Babson in which he explains the situation.

"Bond prices," says Mr. Babson, "are governed by a combination of three factors: the demand for goods, the supply of money, and the psychology of the times. The combination of these three set the price for money (the yield of bonds) which governs the market value of the individual security."

"If we begin at the bottom we find low commodity prices, dull business and little demand for commercial money. Add the psychological factor of increased confidence on the part of the public and demand picks up, prices strengthen and manufacturers bestir themselves to take care of new business. As soon as these conditions exist, buying starts in earnest. People always like to buy in a rising market. The more they buy the higher prices go and we head for a boom. All this buying takes more money and the manufacturer requires added funds to take care of increased demand."

"Funds that would otherwise be invested in bonds are used in business, in fact, many bonds are sold to get the necessary cash to carry on operations on the new scale. The banks meantime have a heavy demand for commercial loans and the bonds they bought with idle funds during dull times are sold. All this reduces the demand for investment bonds and increases the available supply of such issues."

"As the boom goes too far banks get overextended and must call in loans. More bonds are sold and prices tumble. Concerns which are caught must liquidate and forced sales mean sacrifice prices. The moment the public sees prices begin to weaken, demand disappears as quickly as it appears in a rising market. Business slows up and funds begin to accumulate both with the investor who saves more in dull times, and in boom times and the banks who now have a slackened demand for commercial loans."

"Both turn again to the bond market and seek to invest these surplus funds. Demand for bonds again picks up and prices begin to rise. As they go up the buying increases. A certain speculative element, busy in the stock market during the boom turns to bonds for a possible speculative profit."

"The true investor," concluded Mr. Babson, "should not be upset by these fluctuations but should buy for regular income rather than speculative profit. The position of the market when the funds are available should govern only the type of security selected. If bond prices are high, buy short time issues that funds may be re-invested to advantage later on. When bond prices are low, buy long time issues that the relatively high income available at that time may be enjoyed as long as possible."

General business continues its sidewise movement. The index of the Babsonchart shows activity at 3 per cent above normal. The same level as last week.

W. F. M. S. MEETING HELD IN THIS CITY

Annual Group Meeting of Woman's Foreign Missionary Society Held at Grace M. E. Church in This City

The annual group meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was held Wednesday at Grace M. E. church. Quite a number were in attendance from Arenzville, Concord, Alexander, White Hall and Wesley Chapel, and the meeting proved to be a most profitable one.

Mrs. H. L. Griswold, the president, presided and the visitors were made welcome by various members of Grace church. The morning devotionals were led by Mrs. T. Brown, who dwelt upon the story of Ruth and Naomi. Mrs. Gates then gave some thought while suggestions for the coming months and Mrs. J. W. Leach also spoke briefly. A duet was sung by Mrs. A. E. Richardson and Mrs. Frank Ransom of Wesley Chapel.

The work in the field was reviewed by Mrs. Samuel Darley and Rev. E. L. Pletcher gave an inspiring and helpful message, dwelling particularly on the success of the work of the past months.

Adjournment was then taken for lunch. The afternoon meeting opened with devotionals led by Rev. P. J. Rinehart. This was followed by five minute talks from different auxiliaries. Mrs. Anthony of Pleasant Plains gave a talk on extension work, explaining various phases of the work.

The reports of the vice president and recording secretary were followed by a solo by Mrs. James Mahon, accompanied by Mrs. J. Edgar Martin. Miss Mary Wadsworth then gave a very interesting talk in connection with the reconstruction work in France. Mrs. Naylor was the next speaker, telling something about her work with children and exhibiting some very cleverly done posters.

After brief remarks by Mrs. Gates the meeting was brought to a close by a little talk by Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick.

MYSTERY OF SOLDIERS FATE IS SOLVED BY RED CROSS SOCIETY

Work of Local Executives Assist in Proving Death of Jan Jankowski Whom the Government Declared to be Alive—Story One of Sacrifice, Tragedy and Suffering

Another of the many stories of heroism, sacrifice and tragedy that fill the pages of the history of the recent war, has come to light thru the work of the local Red Cross executives. It is the story of Jan Jankowski, a soldier whom the government has for more than four years declared to be alive, but whom his relatives knew to be dead.

Walter Janowski, a brother of the dead soldier, who is employed at the Capps mills in this city, tried for months to get the facts of his brother's death from the government, but was told that his brother was alive and a resident of Michigan City, Ind. Walter even made a trip to Michigan City, and there he found not his brother, but another Jan Jankowski, who had also been a soldier in France.

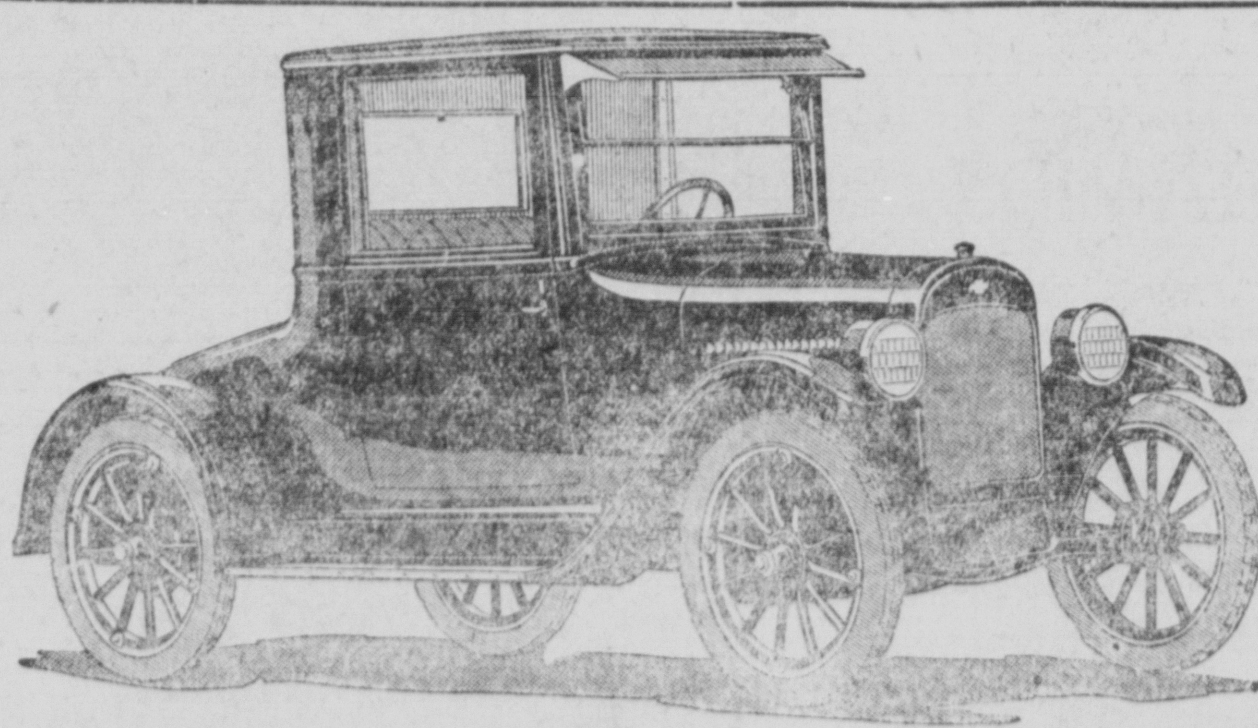

The relatives gave up the search in despair, until recently Walter Jankowski came to the local Red Cross office to file his application for the state bonus. The Red Cross executive heard his story and began investigations which led the government to acknowledge its error.

Thru this story runs the thread of heroism and honor of young Jankowski, fighting for his adopted country and dying on the field of battle. There is also the tragedy of parents dying in want in a war stricken land, and of brothers and sisters disappointed while in the treasury at Washington were funds which might have saved the starving parents and brought relief to relatives.

Jan Jankowski was born in the state of Kovno, Lithuania, in 1896. He came to America with his two older brothers, Walter and Raymond, in 1911, and all three began to make their way in the new land. When the war broke out, Jan enlisted in the regular army and was sent overseas early in the struggle. He was with Company G, in the Ninth U. S. Infantry, and served as supply sergeant of his company until Oct. 8, 1918, when he was killed in action on the Champagne front.

Jan's brother saw his name in the list of killed in action, tho they never received from the government an official notice of his death. Later Walter Jankowski received the following letter telling of his brother's heroic death: Company G, 9th Infantry, October 20, 1918:

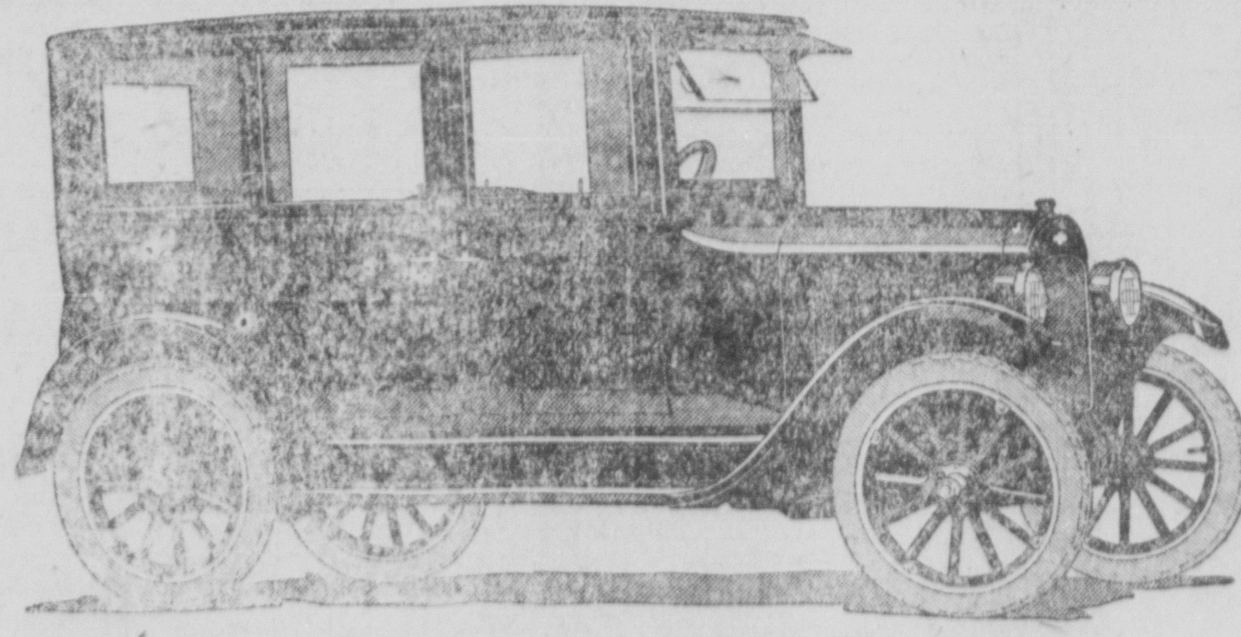

My Dear Mr. Jankowski—About the first of this month our division, which has been noted for its fighting ability in previous battles, was given the task of taking a difficult position on the Champagne front. We did not fall in making a fierce attack and we pushed the Germans back about ten kilometers or six miles. Sergeant Jankowski did some brave and gallant fighting during this battle. Thruout the week more of fighting, he was constantly with the captain and gave the captain valuable assistance during many of the strenuous (Continued on Page 9)

WHITE HALL SOCIETIES IN SESSION THIS WEEK

Music Club, Domestic Science Club and Good Will S. S. Class all held meetings—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, April 27.—The Good Will class of the M. E. Sunday school, 25 in number met with Mrs. L. O. Sullivan on Carrollton street Thursday afternoon. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Ernest Sullivan and Mrs. Ollie Fitzgerald. The program consisted of a piano solo by Mrs. Harry Marks, cornet duet by Vivian and Vincent Heaton, vocal solo by Mrs. Harry Littleton, and reading by Mrs. Frank Henderson. A joke newspaper presented by Mrs. L. O. Sullivan contained contributions from the members, creating a great deal of mirth. Socialities and refreshments concluded the function. The next meeting will be with Mrs. T. N. Rose, who will be assisted by Mrs. Fred Mitts and Mrs. A. C. Rich. The class has a membership of forty-eight.

The Music club held the monthly session with Mrs. C. E. Swenson Wednesday afternoon. The May meeting will conclude the present season, and the new officers were elected at this April session as follows: President, Mrs. Ward Hall; vice president, Miss Mary Ellis; secretary, Mrs. Francis Piper; treasurer, Mrs. Hal Nevius; press reporter, Mrs. C. G. Purl; accompanists, Mrs. Laura Pritchett, Miss Mildred Morrow, chorister, Mrs. Curtis Brown (re-elected). Spring music was the topic for consideration and the musical numbers were in conformity, the soloists being Miss Mary Ellis, Mrs. Harry Marks, Mrs. Clifford Seely, Mrs. C. E. Stetson, Mrs. Ward Hall, Mrs. H. O. Tunison, Miss Rita Arnold, all in piano numbers, and there was a vocal duet by Mrs. E. C. Pearce and Miss Edith Chapin, with Miss Effie Nicholson as accompanist. The important feature was the chorus rehearsal for participation in the May Day festival next Tuesday. Fifty dollars were voted toward furnishing the club room in the Whiteside-Grissold memorial library. The concluding session in May will be Guest Day, when a musical burlesque will be presented in the Presbyterian church basement, a concert musical satire, entitled "The Bargain Hunter." This will be followed by an indoor picnic supper.

The April meeting of the Domestic Science club was held with Mrs. George McClure on Sherman street. Mrs. A. W. Foreman read a few extracts from the Health Magazine on kitchen utensils and rhubarb. Mrs. Mont Winters made a report of the district meeting recently held in the Dunlap hotel in Jacksonville as a guest of the Jacksonville club. Roll call was answered by quotations from Edgar Guest. Victrola music and refreshments interspersed the socialities. Officers for the coming year are: President, Mrs. James Haddock; vice president, Mrs. R. L. Beatty; secretary, Mrs. F. N. Collins; treasurer, Mrs. J. D. Rowe; press reporter, Mrs. J. E. Thompson.

News Notes

Inquiry at Walton hospital today reveals that the condition of Harold Burns has had a favorable turn for several days, and that there are excellent prospects for his complete recovery. He is the boy who was pinioned in the wreckage of freight cars south of White Hall on the 22nd. The manner of his rescue and assurances of recovery from the terrible injuries reflect most creditably on the medical and surgical skill and the hospital facilities of White Hall that are credited with the miraculous escape from death.

Mrs. G. A. Greene and Miss Kate Ellis were local delegates to the P. E. O. convention at Rockford this week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Shuman are preparing to take up their residence in St. Louis, where it will be more convenient for Mr. Shuman in connection with his passenger run on the C. & A. Mrs. G. W. Secor, mother of Mrs. Shuman, will go to St. Louis to continue her residence with them.

Diamond Grove Memorial Mausoleum

As our canvass grows nearer its close, there are some, it would seem, who like the better things, who have not given heed to our call to the better way.

It must be remembered that there is but one Lincoln Park in Diamond Grove. Only such space as is subscribed before construction begins will be built into Diamond Grove Memorial. Desirable locations in the present plan are growing fewer every day. Delay will surely mean regret for sentiment triumphs over reason always in the last analysis, because, perhaps, it is after all, the better reason. To feel that to the last and for always we have cherished and honored our beloved, protected that familiar tenement wherein there lived a well loved soul from all violation by the elements and the lower forms of life, to know that, by the better way we have provided a place wherein our loved ones rest secure and calm amid peace, and dignity, and grandeur, in indeed,

The Red Gods are Calling You

Just as it happens to every man with red blood in his veins, it happens to you—

You may be alone at home, or with others in your office, it doesn't matter—

Suddenly the walls fade away, and before your eyes appear that joyous vision of warm spring days—

The "Red Gods" of the great out-ofdoors are calling now when man, in keeping with all nature, wants and needs a change—

Come in this week and select the pattern from which to make up the new spring suit that puts you in line with all nature.

Paige-Timken Rear Axles— 99.8% Dependable!

THIS Paige-Timken rear axle has delivered phenomenal service in the Jewett Six. A careful factory check-up recently made on the first 20,000 Jewetts in use revealed that only two-tenths of 1% had ever had any axle trouble whatever—even including those due to accidents.

* A remarkable record—said to be unequalled in the history of the industry. But it is typical of Jewett's stout and dependable construction. Extra-tough steel and ample size give this Paige-Timken rear axle of the Jewett a great surplus of strength for safety. See Jewett Six for yourself—get the facts of its Paige engineering, big Six qualities. We'll be glad to explain them to you.

MYSTERY OF SOLDIERS FAT EIS SOLVED BY RED CROSS SOCIETY

parts of the battle. On October 8, Sergeant Jankowski got wounded and started back to the dressing station. On his way back thru the barrage, he was hit by a shell and instantly killed.

Sergeant Jankowski was the most heroic man in the company. During previous battle as well as this one, he showed a cool and level head under the heaviest of artillery and machine gun fire. Nothing seemed to excite him. He was greatly beloved by everybody in the company, the most glowing tribute a man can receive.

I send you my heartfelt sympathy, but in your sorrow may you be proud that Sergeant Jankowski fell while bravely and courageously doing his duty.

Yours, Truly,
Stephen M. Richardson,
Second Lieutenant Co., G, 9th Infantry.

The brother then wrote to Washington to learn more about the fatal circumstances by which Jan lost his life. He received from the Veteran's bureau which was at that time the War Risk Insurance bureau, the information that Jan was not dead, but living in Michigan City, Ind. Walter made the trip from here to Michigan City. There was indeed a Jan Jankowski there, but it was not his brother whom he found, and this man proved to be no kin to Walter. However, it was this Jan Jankowski whom the government had believed to be dead, and when the name appeared in the list of killed in action insurance checks began coming to his family in Michigan City. These were all turned back after the mistake had been discovered.

With these new facts in his possession, Walter again wrote Washington but without avail. The bureau declared him to be in error. Finally he gave up the attempt to find out more of his brother's death.

As soon as the local Red Cross secretary had heard Walter Jankowski's story of disappointment, she took the letter from Lieutenant Richardson and sent it to the Washington Red Cross, with the request that a personal representative be sent to the adjutant's office bearing the proof of Jan Jankowski's death. This was done, and a sworn statement was secured from the adjutant declaring the fact of Jan's death. With this evidence the Red Cross approached the Veteran's bureau, and the error, which had existed for four and a half years, was finally acknowledged by that department.

Meanwhile the compensation from the insurance carried by Jan Jankowski, which should have gone to the parents in Lithuania, had been accumulating in Washington. The sum of more than one thousand dollars waited for the father to claim it. And here is the tragedy. Both parents had perished in the war. The stricken country, while relatives tried in vain to rectify the error. Starved and worn with the struggle with famine and disease, the mother died in 1919, and in November, 1922, father also died. The younger sister still remains in Lithuania.

Jan Jankowski was a real man, as will be shown by the last letter which his brothers received from him, written two weeks before his death. The touching incident of the correspondence with the girl in New York shows that he was a man of honor. His anxiety for his family is an indication of his real greatness. The fact that he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross and the Croix de Guerre speaks for his fighting qualities, and his simple statement that he did not expect such recognition reveals his innate modesty.

Co., "G," 9th Infantry
24th September 1918.
American E. F.

Dear Walter:

I was very glad to get your long letter. Don't worry about me. I was two months in the hospital. Got well all right but can't walk straight yet. You know it takes time to get in good shape again. I have been vaccinated from the hospital two weeks ago and joined the organization for duty. You say that Alex was in the trenches two weeks. He is lucky. I spent most of ten months in the trenches and went over the top three times. I suppose you hear all about what's going on here. I can't write much about the war because of the censor regulations, but I have a right to say that the war will be over soon. Huns say that the Americans are too clever for them. By the way, I didn't tell you all about a friend I have in the States. I received from the Red Cross some time ago sweaters, mufflers, and helmets for this company. I found in one of those mufflers the address of a young lady from Upper Saranac, N. Y. I wrote her a letter and told her how much we appreciated this contribution. Since then I have been receiving letters every week and she also sent me her picture. She is just a school girl. She has never seen me and I haven't ever seen her but she surely likes to correspond with me. She says she is proud to hear from me. I wish you would write a letter to her and tell her that I am only a common soldier, and have a family, just to stop her from worrying about me. Send best regards to Romauld, Jose, and his family.

I received here from General Pershing Distinguished Service Cross. I didn't expect one. Anything you wish or anything I can do for you let me know, or anything Romauld or his family wishes to have let me know. I will do my best.

Best wishes to all and to Mother somewhere.

Your brother,
Jan.

This was the last personal message from Jan Jankowski. He did not even have time to send the letter to his brother; but it was found on his dead body, together with the Distinguished Service Cross presented to him by General Pershing. Had the lad known the real fate of his parents and younger sister, of whom he so anxiously inquired, his trouble would have been far more than the hardships of the trenches.

The country of Lithuania was with Russia in the World War. Early in the struggle the Germans invaded it. Jan Jankowski's father and mother were separated. The father took the young daughter and fled to Russia. They lived in a cellar for three days with nothing to eat. For three years the father worked on railroads in Russia. He returned to his native town, to find his wife barely existing and everything they had possessed wiped out of existence.

The French Croix de Guerre, awarded to Jan Jankowski, was sent to relatives after his death. He died not knowing that he was to receive this final recognition of his bravery.

DAYLIGHT AVING PLAN BEGINS TODAY IN EASTERN STATES

months of daylight saving, beginning the latter part of April.

Advocates of the new time here declare the principal objections to daylight saving, originated mostly in the rural districts, have been exploded by results of tests at the Massachusetts state experimental farms and by those farmers who do advocate daylight saving.

Many farmers have contended that crops could not be cultivated early in the morning when dew still is on the plants, but this argument, daylight saving proponents say, was reduced to the case of one plant—beans. Subsequently, it was added, one Massachusetts farmer, an advocate of daylight saving, cultivated a record crop of beans while still dew laden, prior to 6 a. m.

Lasting Satisfaction in the Hup- mobile

Satisfaction is perhaps the one word which best describes the feeling of every Hupmobile owner.

Satisfaction—with the faithful way it performs the tasks he sets for it to do; with the fact that it requires next to nothing in the way of expert care and adjustment; with low costs that stay low all the year 'round.

Satisfaction, in short, because the Hupmobile always does the things he wants it to do in the way he wants it to do them.

- 1 The Oakland Six-44 is an outstanding success! Every day, more and more buyers are convincing themselves that no other automobile offers an equal dollar-for-dollar value! In little more than a year, the demand has taxed the production facilities of the Oakland factory!
- 2 Oakland is so confident of the superiority of its engine that it gives a written 15,000 mile guarantee against excess oil in the combustion chamber—proof of the superiority of Oakland's cylinder, piston and ring construction. Only Oakland offers such a guarantee.
- 3 Only Oakland gives you a definite gauge with which to estimate the actual mileage an Oakland will deliver—free from expense. Consider Oakland's figures (elsewhere in this advertisement) in the light of your own motoring experience, and you'll appreciate how remarkable they are!
- 4 In Cleveland, the average upkeep on Six-44's last year was only $8.06 per car. Other cities report similarly low averages.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

President Barker attended a meeting of the business committee of the Bi-Conference held in Peoria on Friday.

Hon. and Mrs. James E. MacMurray of Chicago are planning to spend the week end at the college as the guests of President and Mrs. Barker. Mr. MacMurray is president of the Board of Trustees.

In the east court the early blooming flowers are now in most brilliant color. The planting has been carried out so that the college colors predominate. Yellow and blue hyacinths combined with yellow and blue iris make a good combination. The early tulips now in bloom will soon be followed by the later varieties as well as with peonies and roses.

A number of the Seniors in Home Economics are operating a practice house, using for this purpose the residence of Miss Eleanor Thompson just north of the School for the Deaf. The young women take full charge of the house and are given credit for this work toward the requirements for a certificate under the Smith-Hughes act.

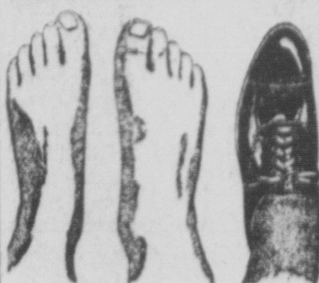

The Woman's College Glee club scored a big success at the concert given in Franklin Friday evening under the auspices of the Woman's club in charge of Mrs. W. C. Callahan. A good audience was present to enjoy the splendid program which was given. Madam Colard sang a solo which was received with a great deal of enthusiasm, and her conducting as usual, showed her ability to get the best results from her students.

The Alpha Pi Deltas will entertain the faculty Monday afternoon at an open meeting. Following the meeting there will be a social hour and the affair promises to be one of the most enjoyable events of the season. The Dramatic club of the college will present "The Charm School," a comedy by Alice Duer Miller and Robert Milton. The cast has been chosen and the rehearsals will begin in earnest next week. The play will be staged on the campus or in the gymnasium during the last week of school, as a part of the Commencement entertainment.

On Friday afternoon, April 27th, Miss Anderson, Miss Johnston and Miss Knopf gave a delightful afternoon tea opening the exhibition of recent paintings of Colorado by Miss Knopf in the social room. These paintings will remain on exhibition until May 12th and the public is invited to see them.

Practice has begun on the Spring Festival which will be given on the college campus May 14. "Persephone's Return," a Greek pageant portraying the origin of spring, will be presented, preceding the crowning of the May Queen.

The French and Spanish departments of the college have worked enthusiastically over a great Fete Fiesta, which is to be given in the Chapel and Expression hall Saturday evening, April 28. It is not often the two departments have an opportunity to present the ability and talents concealed within. The college endowment has called for an inspiration from which an opportunity has been grasped and the two plays are being produced, one written by Miss Audrey King from the French department and the other by Miss Martha Logan of the Spanish department. Great care has been stressed to present these plays in a professional way. In addition to the plays, which will be presented in the college chapel, there will be in the Expression Hall the French and Spanish cafes, enlivened by the French and Spanish dancing and singing. The novelty will be an Argentine Tango by Rhodolph Valentino. An invitation is extended to the public and a large attendance is expected.

Illinois College Notes

President Rammelkamp left Thursday evening for the East to attend the New York Alumni banquet Saturday evening. Dr. Byron C. Darling of New York is president of the New York Society of Illinois College, and Dr. Charles B. Russell of Patterson, New Jersey is the present secretary of the Society.

Several students in the Senior class of the College have recently been appointed to teaching positions for the coming year. Miss Ruby Mann will teach Latin and English in the Hartsville, Illinois High school next year, and Miss Alma Shuman will teach Science in the Carrollton High school.

Dean Scott will attend the meetings of the Mathematics Association of Illinois, to be held at Monmouth on May 3 to 5.

William Russell Pinkerton who graduated from Illinois in February, is now associated with the Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles, California. He writes that the Times employs over 900 men and prints six editions of the paper each day.

The Dramatic Club of the College will give the play "Twelfth Night" on May 22nd. In case of rain the play will be staged on the 24th of May, since the performance is to be given out-of-doors.

The women of the faculty will hold their regular monthly tea at the Tea Tray next Thursday afternoon at 3:30.

Considerable work is being done on the tennis court which is being completed on the campus east of the Jones Building. When the court is

TERRY PRESENTS MORE EVIDENCE

Declares Tanlac Restored Him Recently Just as It Did 6 Years Ago

"About six years ago I sent in a statement for Tanlac and had a great many people ask me if it were really so that the medicine did so much for me. My answer was, 'Yes indeed, even more,' and I am glad to say it all over again that Tanlac has no equal," said John L. Terry, 926 N. Third St., Springfield, Ill., the other day.

"Six years ago I was a sick man—completely run-down and unable to get a particle of relief from my troubles. My old friend, Bob Clarkson, the druggist, put me on to Tanlac and the treatment fixed me up to where I felt like a new man, and told Bob it couldn't be beat."

"I stayed in fine trim until two years ago when I felt run-down again, so I took the treatment the second time, and haven't felt the need of medicine since. But if I ever do, there's only one medicine for me—Tanalac."

Tanalac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37-million bottles sold.

Our Co-Operation in the New

Ford Weekly Purchase Plan

Following out our policy of extending the facilities of this bank in whatever way we can to serve the public, we have arranged to give our co-operation to the new Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

We realize what the automobile means to the average family in bringing them greater enjoyment of life, and believe our action in helping those who desire to become Ford owners will be appreciated by many families who can now realize that ambition through the new Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

Under this plan, you can begin with an initial deposit as low as $5.00. Then select the type of Ford Car you want—Touring Car, Runabout, Coupe, Sedan, etc.—and arrange to make weekly deposits on which interest will be computed at our regular savings rate.

Come in and let us explain the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan to you, or, if you wish, go to the nearest Ford Dealer for further details.

Start Tomorrow and before you realize it you will be driving your own car.

Still a Girl

In bloom and beauty—due to clay

By Edna Wallace Hopper

After 32 years as a stage star, I look like a girl of 19. My complexion is as soft and rosy as a debutante's. My skin is as smooth and youthful as 40 years ago.

All women marvel at my looks when they see me play young girls' parts. But my same methods brought like results to scores of my beautiful friends. So I am convinced that most women can, in these ways, multiply their beauty and preserve their bloom.

Now I have arranged so all who wish may employ the methods which did so much for me.

White New-Type Clay

The chief essential is complexion clay. Famous beauties have for ages used it. No woman can without it look her best. The users of facial clay stand out in any crowd.

French experts introduced clay to me some 20 years ago. But clays since then have been very much improved. The crude and muddy clays so many use today are out-of-date.

Able scientists have been studying clays for 20 years and over. They have learned how to refine it by removing the useless mud. The clay I use—my Youth Clay—is white and clean and dainty.

They have found some added factors which bring multiplied results. So the oldest users of crude, old-time clays will be amazed at this new clay.

What Youth Clay Does

Youth Clay purges the skin of all that clogs it. Thus it removes the causes of sallowness, blackheads and blemishes.

It draws the blood to the skin to nourish and renew it. The result is that rosy afterglow, that seeming new complexion. Many women, in 20 minutes, seem to drop ten years.

It firms the skin, smooths out lines and wrinkles, reduces enlarged pores. My own face shows clearly what constant use will do. I owe my fame and fortune largely to this clay.

Abandon those crude clays which I quit many years ago. See what White Youth Clay can do. It will bring you, as to me, multiplied effects.

All druggists and toilet goods dealers now supply Edna Wallace Hopper's White Youth Clay. Price, 50c and $1 per tube. Also my Youth Cream, based on lemon and strawberry. This should follow the clay. Also my Facial Youth—my famous liquid cleanser. Also my Hair Youth, which brought my luxuriant hair. My Beauty Book comes with each.

See what Youth Clay does. You owe that to yourself. If you are not delighted with the first tube, your dealer will return its price. I want no woman to ever lose by taking my advice.

The Battle of Lexington Is Called to Memory

In observance of the anniversary of the battle of Lexington an appropriate program was presented recently by Rev. James Caldwell Chapter D. A. R. at the chapter house. The members and guests counted themselves fortunate in the presence of E. B. Hamilton, prominent Peoria attorney, who delivered the address. Mr. Hamilton said in part: "Today there is a value in reverting to that spring morning when that handful of Continentals under Captain Parker awaited the approach of Pittcairn's redecoated grenadiers. Men were justified in calling it an act of supreme folly that a few Minute Men should dare to cope with so powerful an adversary as the King's troops. It savors of the glory of an act of martyrdom. They could not have hoped for the slightest success as the world measures success. But there was a divine guidance that leveled the dial of their muskets and guided 16,000 colonists in front of the gates of Boston who came at the call of their new born country—and from that day to this there has never been a nation in the world that has found it a profitable adventure to attack the United States of America.

ial night swept away by that first volley on Lexington green. "What little wonder that Samuel Adams standing on a rock in the wood near Lexington Common waiting for the British to pass on to Concord should utter his immortal sentence, 'O what a glorious morning for America is this!'

"The statistics of the battle are modest but startling in their significance. Thirty-seven hundred Colonists poorly trained and without a real commander were engaged against eighteen hundred British well organized and splendidly commanded. For those liver-hearted and wooden-headed patriots ever in our midst who decry the necessity for the effectiveness of military training, let them ponder and reflect that the Americans lost forty-nine and the British sixty-two, a difference of but thirteen although the British were outnumbered more than two to one.

"The many accounts of the battle which very little in detail are native and primitive in their simplicity. Strippings though they were, most of whom had never seen a battlefield, yet Parker and Putnam and Warren sprang from their ranks to confront the veterans, of Louisburg and Quebec, to cope with Gage and Howe and Earl Percy as, within themselves they felt the minstrel raptures swell.

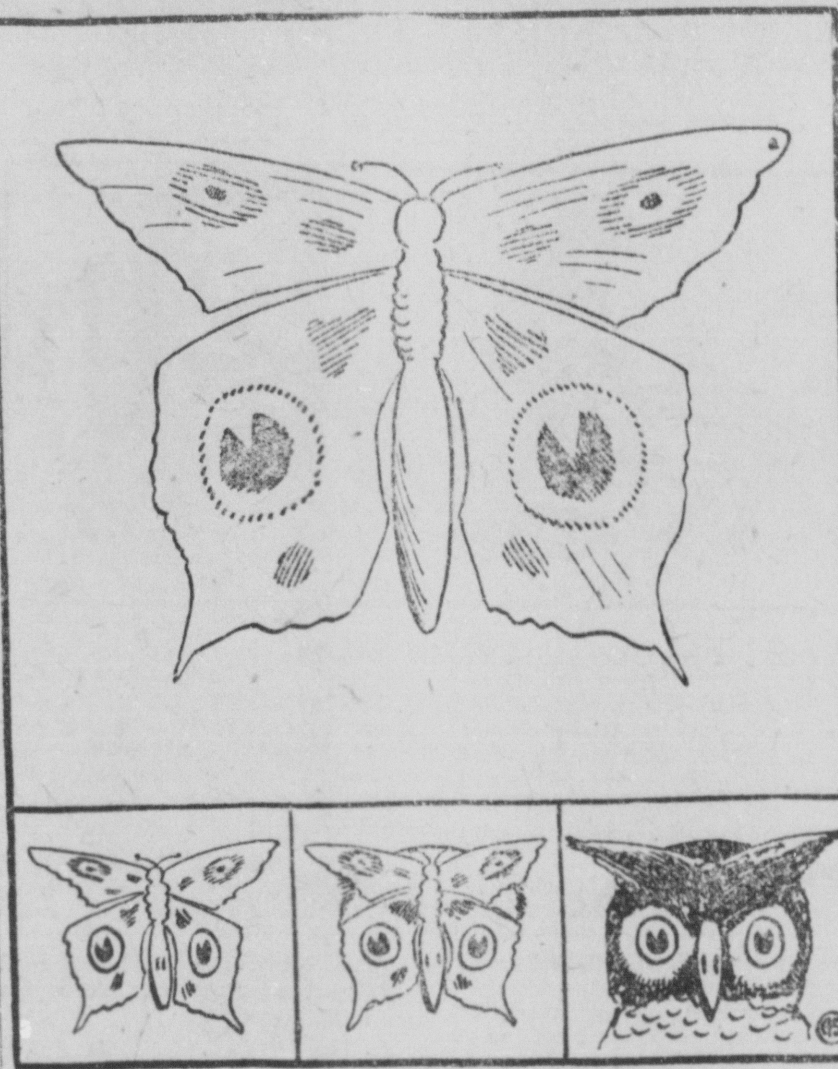

"To have been among the first of those who foresaw and severed the ties that held them bound to a government in which they had no voice; to have been of those who engaged in this perilous adventure for this great consummation; to have looked at those twinkling rays from the two signal lanterns in the high steeple of the Old North Church which gleamed far into the valley of the Charles, proclaiming the crossing of that river by British forces at Lechmere Point; to have divined that their flickering lights, as they burned for the last time on England's soil, meant not rebellion but revolution—and freedom; to be unaffrighted when looking down the muzzles of the trained and equipped regulars in the King's service; to have struck the blow that sealed the history of an empire in a nation that doomed the sovereign robes of a separate national existence; to encounter death undaunted in support of law and liberty that the all fashioning hand of time might produce from the Revolution the greatest Republic of all the ages; this is the lasting glory of the Minute Men of Lexington and Concord.

"LaFayette who saw the surrender of Yorktown came in 1824 to see the spot where began this war in which he took so noble a part. In 1852 Louis Kossuth, an exile from the banks of the Danube after the disastrous war for the independence of Hungary, made his pilgrimage to pay his devotion to the birthplace of liberty and proclaimed Lexington as the opening scene of a revolution that is destined to change the character of human governments and the condition of the human race.

"This, then, was the Alpha of the American Revolution, the blow which redressed the wrongs of a generation, the rudder which steered our youthful bark out of the wake of Europe to ride the waves alone and untrammelled. Its opening volley sounded the reveille for the birth of a Republic and exceeded in importance any battle since Miltiades and Themistocles and Aristides locked down from their mountainsides where the Grecian army was encamped, upon the forces of Darius on the plain of Marathon, and decided to give them battle. It surpassed in importance the Battle of Chalons when the Romans hurled back the Huns under Attila and saved the Christian world from a German peril until the House of Hohenzollern should again threaten it; it arises above the battle of Hastings which determined the success of the Norman conquest in bringing to England a primary constitutional government, of Blenheim which crushed the vast fabric of power of Louis XIV which the talents of Turenne and the genius of Vauban had constructed. It meant more to civilization than 'Dread Poltova's Day when fortune left the royal Swede' as Byron says and 'passed to the triumphant Czar' or Waterloo, 'thou first and last of fields, king-making victory.'

"Much of the ground over which they fought has been effaced by crowded streets and city buildings but though the sites should disappear like Troy, or as Philippi where the last hopes of Roman liberty were destroyed or Pharsalia where the sword of Caesar prevailed over the sword of Pompey, the battles of Lexington and Concord will live forever because they have 'Engraved their story on the living sky.

DEVELOPMENT OF ILLINOIS OIL ROADS

Second Only in Importance to Hard Roads in the State—Engineers' Speak Highly of Them.

Springfield — Development of oil roads in Illinois to a position second only to the state hard road system has led the state highway department to plan an experimental oil road in Henry county, similar to the Bates experimental hard road.

The bureau of materials of the highway department, in co-operation with the county superintendent of highways of Henry county this summer, is to construct a road for the purpose of observing under ordinary traffic conditions the effect of various quantities and grades of road oils now commonly used by Illinois counties. At the same time study will be made of the several important factors entering into the construction of oiled roads, such as the method of application condition of soil and subgrade and weather extremes.

Approximately 13,000 miles of road in Illinois now are oiled, constituting more than 14 per cent of the public highway system. During the last year, these roads required more than 35,000,000 gallons of oil and involved an expenditure of more than $2,000,000. The state highway department has estimated that far over 14 per cent of the public traffic is carried by these roads. In localities where hard roads have not been built, oiled roads carry the brunt of the traffic.

One phase of road oiling that will be investigated on the proposed experimental road, is the method to pursue to preserve the oiled surface throughout the winter and spring months. Illinois soil conditions are declared by highway department engineers to be sufficiently unlike those of any other states to make methods of developing oil roads a pioneer movement for this state. The present specifications have been entirely the result of observations and experience of Illinois road builders.

Although Illinois has had oiled roads but ten years, they have developed to a place, where according to highway officials, they now demand the particular attention of the state highway department. The engineers speak highly of the "properly constructed and maintained" they are a most pleasing medium for light travel.

GALESBURG HAS FINE SHALE BED

Furnishes Material to One of the Largest Brick Plants in World—Is Mile Long and 50 to 60 Feet in Depth.

GALESBURG—One of the finest shale beds in the state, supplying material for one of the largest brick plants in the world, will be an attraction for scientists, especially the geologists, who attend the annual meeting of the Illinois State Academy of Science, here, May 3-5.

The shale bed is four miles east of Galesburg. It is one mile long and from 50 to 60 feet deep. It lies above what is believed to be coal mine No. 3 of the Illinois series. Above it lie the drift of clays of the glacial period, and the more recent subsoil and soil while under it lies the series of bluish shale.

The shale is remarkably fine grained and free from lime, it is said. In its bottom layers are found fragments of calamities, stems of ferns and occasional fossils and also other plants. In the underlying formations of iron stone and limestone and in the blue shale are found many fossils and remains of plants.

This shale exposure has of recent months been made the subject of considerable study in connection with a reclassification of the coal veins of the state. Professor Noe of Chicago University, who has had this work in charge, will be one of the party to escort the members of the academy on the field trip to the shale bed.

Will Observe Events of Spanish American War

This year marking the twenty-fifth anniversary of the war with Spain, the United Spanish War Veterans' organization is planning extensive celebrations throughout the state in commemoration of the different historical events of that war.

The Spanish War Memorial commission appointed by Governor Small met recently in the office of Adjutant General Carlos E. Black in Springfield and outlined the plans along which these observances will be held.

The commission has sent circulars to all the schools and colleges in the state, recommending that May 1st be observed with programs in honor of the victory of Commodore George Dewey, over the Spanish fleet in Manila harbor, in 1898. The different ministers and priests in the state will be asked to set aside July 1 for memorial services in honor of the battle of Santiago, which was fought on July 3, with such disastrous results to the Spanish fleet.

Flag day, June 14, was selected for a big public meeting to be held in Jacksonville, two of which are to be held in the state during the year, and for which funds were appropriated by the state legislature. The one to be held in Jacksonville will be largely attended by the people of central and southern Illinois, while the celebration for the northern part of the state will be held at Chicago on December 12, which is the anniversary of the treaty of Paris settling all of the difficulties growing out of the war.

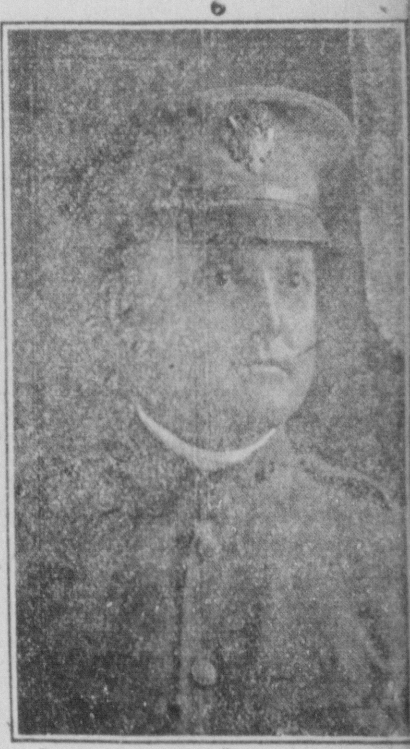

Special Observance.

Each camp in the state is requested to hold special observances of the following dates:
July 3—Battle of Santiago.
July 17—Surrender of Santiago
August 16—Signing of the Peace Protocol.

December 12—Treaty of Paris.
The Commission is now preparing a history of events of that war, showing the causes that led to the war, events of the war, and results which have come on account of the war. They are also arranging a form of program which may be used for each special day. This information is to be published in pamphlet form, and distributed throughout the state, as far as the funds available will permit.

The State Encampment.

William H. Rule Camp No. 96, the local organization, is moving right along perfecting plans for the state encampment on June 11.

Post Commander of the Local Spanish War Veterans' Camp

15 and 16, at which time it is expected that no less than twelve hundred visitors will be entertained in Jacksonville. Plans are being made and perfected to show the visitors that this is a real city for the proper entertainment of strangers.

A change in the personnel of the officers of the local organization was made at a special meeting which was held Friday evening. On account of business reasons, Adjutant W. A. Westrop, who was the instigator of the movement to establish a camp here, and who has served as adjutant since its organization, resigned. Commander O. C. Smith has appointed William D. Harrington as the new adjutant effective immediately. As Mr. Harrington is now the head printer at the School for the Deaf, this arrangement will be excellent, for during the strenuous work preparatory for the encampment, it is essential that the Commander and Adjutant be in close touch at all times. The Commander, Col. O. C. Smith, who is also Judge Advocate of the Department of Illinois and candidate for state commander at this encampment, has borne a very heavy burden, willingly. BRITISH CLERGY TO SUPPORT LABOR PARTY

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON—More than five hundred clergymen of the Church of England have formally pledged their support to the Labor party. Among them are many canons. For a long time many in the church have felt keenly the reproach that the working classes were being alienated from the church, that the church showed plainly that it had no sympathy with them and their aims and aspirations, and never did anything for them. The leaders of this movement within the church are determined, it is said, that hereafter labor shall have no cause to complain that it lacks friends among the clergy. The 500 clergymen signed a congratulatory memorial address to Ramsay MacDonald and other labor members of parliament in which they say: "We shall support actively in whatever ways are open to us in the efforts you will assuredly make for the spiritual and economic emancipation of the people."

Canon Donaldson, in presenting the memorial said: "It is quite clear that a great change of outlook has taken place, not to say landslide of the clergy in regard to their opinion and attitude toward the labor movement."

Walter Long of Litherbury spent Saturday in the business district.

Gr-r-r! Woof! The Animal Race Is On!

(Play experts from all over North America send in their newest ideas to THE FUN MAKER. Regular readers of THE FUN MAKER will learn about all sorts of games and stunts just as soon as they are invented.)

You'd think you were having a nightmare, wouldn't you, if you saw a crab, a kangaroo, and a monkey running a race? At any rate, it would be a queer sort of race to watch. Mr. H. C. Trangenstein invented such an animal race for the boys of the Cleveland Y. M. C. A., and he has passed it on to The Fun Maker.

The racers line up and the leader tells each one what sort of animal he is to imitate. He should pick out animals with a peculiar sort of gait, and he should try to give the taller boys animals which make the least speed.

A narrow course is marked off for the race, and here and there pillows are placed as obstacles. The leader gives the signal, and the race begins.

The crab, going backward on all fours, bumps into the pillow and gets tangled up. The kangaroo, hopping along, has a hard time getting over him. The monkey, swinging past on his hands and feet, steers aside to avoid trouble. Here comes the snake, wriggling on his stomach, and having the hardest time of all!

If the animal race is put on at a party, what could be a better prize for the winner than a box of animal crackers?

(Next week The Fun Maker will tell about an indoor game that is just the thing for a party.)

making the preparations for the coming event. Col. Smith first served with the regular army when but a boy, and when the Spanish war first broke out again enlisted in the Springfield company of the 5th Illinois Infantry.

At the time of the Mexican outbreak he was commissioned as a captain on border duty afterwards being promoted to major, which position he held at the close of border trouble. When war was declared in 1917, he again went to the front with the 33rd Division, and was finally made a Lieutenant Colonel, being gassed while on duty in France.

The new Adjutant, William D. Harrington, who has recently transferred to this camp from Lincoln Home Camp No. 64, in Springfield, has also quite an enviable record. He served in Company E, 9th Illinois Infantry, in Cuba, in 1898, and re-enlisted in Co. K, 15th U. S. Infantry for service in the Philippines. He saw considerable hard service in the islands, and in the Chinese relief expedition, and during the insurrection in Samar Province in the Philippines, was commissioned Provisional Lieutenant of scouts.

After completion of his enlistment Mr. Harrington remained in Manila until September 4, 1906 engaging in newspaper work as special assignment and rewrite Butts, Depot Quartermaster, until the fall of 1907, when he again returned to the United States and engaged in newspaper work.

He has conducted the Brookport Eagle, the Pope County Era and various other newspapers until the year 1916, when he was appointed as head printer at the St. Charles school for boys from which point he was transferred to a similar position at the school for the Deaf here.

WAVERLY'S FIVE CHURCHES PLAN UNION SERVICES

Fifth Sunday Night Service Will Be Held Tomorrow at Congregational Church—Other Waverly News.

Waverly, April 28.—Sunday night the churches of the city will hold union services as is the custom on every fifth Sunday of the month. The service will be held at the Congregational church, and Rev. J. N. Thomas, pastor of the Christian church will be the speaker of the evening, having for his subject: "A Better World." At 6:30 o'clock the same evening in the same church the Waverly Young People's union will hold their devotional service, as is usual in connection with the church service. It is planned to reorganize the Union, and new officers will be elected, and new plans formulated, whereby this group of young people may do something which will be of great benefit to the community. This organization has not been working for the past two years, and it is hoped new life will be brought into the work.

Rev. O. R. Thom, pastor of the Congregational church will have for his morning theme: "Blindness of Mortals."

The First M. E. church Sunday school is planning for a record attendance next Sunday. New classes have been organized and the work is going well.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Black were callers in Springfield Friday.

Rev. E. L. Fletcher, district superintendent of the Methodist church, will hold the third quarterly conference of the Circuit churches Sunday afternoon at the home of the pastor, Rev. C. W. Andrews. Earlier in the afternoon Rev. Fletcher will preach at the Prospect church, east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Foster of near Franklin were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George Bland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Wemple and family of Peoria visited several days last week among relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lyons and children and Miss Ida Carr visited last Sunday at Nilwood with their sister, Mrs. Ed Butler and family.

Mrs. Paul Donovan of Springfield is making a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Spiker.

Mr. and Mrs. James Queen of South Fork spent two days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Dennis in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beatty, Mrs. Anna L. Swift and Phineas Dale were visitors in Springfield Wednesday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swift.

Miss Allene McCormick of this city and Miss Laura Elmore of Locmi went to Greenfield to spend last week end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Luce.

Mrs. Margaret Coulter and daughter of Maroa and Mrs. John Eisele of Springfield spent the day Wednesday with Miss Margaret Tietgen.

Mrs. Ella McDewitt and daughters, Misses Eva and Hazel spent several days last week in Sweetwater, visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wemple, of New York City were guests from Monday until Wednesday of the former's father, Edward Wemple, being enroute to their home from a trip to Bay City, Texas, where Mr. Wemple transacted business.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Stice of Island Grove were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Sevier.

Mrs. J. E. Hutchinson of Springfield, Mo., is making a visit at the home of his mother, Mrs. Jane Rohrer.

KANSANS ENJOY LEGISLATIVE DEBATES

(By The Associated Press)
TOPEKA, Kansas.—Freak legislation did not play as prominent a role in the Kansas legislative session, just ended, as has been the custom heretofore, party leaders assert. Several measures of this nature, however, furnished the legislators with occasional diversion.

One in particular, calling for automobile tags on front, rear and sides of cars, reached a stage where it was amended to include also tags in the top and bottom, before the enacting clause was stricken out. Some of the statesmen argued that "The tag on top would aid air police in bandit chases, and every car should carry a tag on the under side so that a victim, when run down, may read the number of the license as the car passes over him."

A bill calling for a pension for farmers also elicited loud treatment. The original bill, introduced by a farmer, provided for pensions up to $50 a month for both men and women, the minimum being $10 a month for those residing on farms ten years; $30 for twenty years and $50 for thirty years or more. One senator, also a farmer, amended this to make the pension payable only to farmers "with corns on both hands and bunions on both feet."

The measure was killed in the senate agricultural committee.

A democratic representative presented a resolution endorsing Henry Ford for president, but the Republican majority of the state affairs committee remodeled it to read "Warren G. Harding," instead of Ford, and recommended it for passage.

Studebaker

The well-built car and the poorly constructed car look very much alike on the salesroom floor. Paint and varnish can cover a multitude of weaknesses in closed car construction.

But you can't ride on the paint.

In a Studebaker Sedan the quality is built into the job. The body will not begin to rattle or squeak after thousands of miles of hard usage.

It will continue to be comfortable and easy riding and will present a fine appearance month after month as when new.

There are closed cars that do not include heaters. Yet, you cannot be comfortable unless you are warm. Every Studebaker Sedan is completely equipped including a heater.

Studebaker's quantity production of cars of quality is responsible for the low price of this Sedan.

Hidden Values Keep Essex Young in Long Service

After fifty, sixty and seventy thousand miles, Essex cars keep the dash and action of new cars. They stay tight and quiet. They keep their economy of operation and maintenance.

Service like that is not accidental. It results from hidden values which are fully revealed only in long hard service. Attention to detail extends to parts you never see. Finest roller bearings are used where commonly plain bushings are used. For the weight carried the Essex frame is the sturdiest built, save one.

Qualities like these make Essex cost less in the long run than the lowest priced cars, because of the difference in repair, maintenance and replacement costs.

WEATHER CONDITIONS LOWER WHEAT PRICES

CHICAGO, April 28. — Excellent weather conditions throughout the entire wheat belt brought about lower prices today in the wheat market here. The close was heavy at 1c to 2c net decline with May $1.23½ to $1.23½ and July $1.21½ to $1.22. Corn lost ¼ to 1½c, and oats ¼ to ½c. In provisions the outcome was unchanged to 10c up.

With reports at hand showing circumstances were more auspicious for field work in the spring crops states, winter wheat sections should be improved by rains the wheat market from the east was under pressure from sellers. Kansas and Nebraska reports in particular to a better outlook for winter wheat, although admitting that there would still be considerable loss of acreage. A decline in transportation quotations tended further to increase bearish sentiment, especially as export buying seemed to have come to more or less of a halt for the time being. Evident unwillingness to accept delivery of wheat here on May first was shown today by many holders of May contracts and as a result there was a noticeable increase of weakness in the May price as compared with July and September. Little rallying power by any of the future deliveries became apparent, and the close was at about the lowest figures of the day, notwithstanding that primary receipts for the week were announced as less than for last week or for the corresponding week a year ago.

Corn and oats received with wheat, although stocks of corn here are expected to diminish soon. Chicago shipping agents have received orders to get boats ready to clear on short notice. Higher quotations on hogs gave firmness to provisions.

as that of eggs stored in April. The best demand from now on will be for eggs from the northern states on account of climatic conditions. Producers should market eggs frequently during the warm weather.

The volume of poultry moving have been lighter and resulted in a little firmer feeling on the selling markets of both live and dressed stock.

There should be free marketing of roosters from now on. Producers wishing to have infertile eggs, which keep better during the hot weather, should sell roosters within the next few weeks.

Stocks of frozen poultry are moving satisfactorily. The seasonable increase in the receipts of butter brought about lower quotations in the leading markets of the country. Today, April 27th the Chicago market on 96 score Standards is 40 cents, as compared with 42½ cents April 26, and 38½ cents the same day last year, while the feeling is just a little firmer today than earlier in the week. It is quite probable that the market has not yet reached bottom, and further revision downward may be expected.

Morgan County Farm Bureau News

In the Monthly News Letter issued to Farm Bureau Members County Agent G. B. Kendall Has the Following to Say

Membership Campaign
This has progressed nicely in some parts of the county and slowly in others. Everything indicates that the Morgan County Farm Bureau will have a sustaining membership that thoroughly understands the Farm Bureau movement.

Prize Essays
The committee appointed by the President of the Farm Bureau made awards as follows: 1st, Charles Watson; 2nd, Edith En-triken; 3rd, D. A. Hoover; 4th, Kenneth Smith. The next fifteen are classified as follows: 1st, Louise Begnel; 2nd, Violet Smith; 3rd, Alta Crum; 4th, Agnes Garvin; 5th, Susan Alexander; 6th, Harriett Dobson; 7th, Alma Durham; 8th, Marie Johnson; 9th, Bernice Spire; 10th, Glenna Mae Seymour; 11th, Milton O'Riley; 12th, Marguerite Goffinet; 13th, Ralph L. Simmons; 14th, Alma Langdon; 15th, Mildred Ellington.

Larger Executive Committee Needed

The campaign has shown the necessity of an Executive Committee representing every voting precinct. Men on the executive committee necessarily become more familiar with Farm Bureau work and pass their findings along to their neighbors. A larger executive committee will do this work more effectively.

Community Organization Needed

The Campaign Manager emphasized this need. We agree with him. If you want your own local organization with president, secretary, and committeemen you can easily have it. The Farm Adviser would really like to work with committees of this sort. Why not arrange meetings that will be of interest to the whole family.

Standard Pig Clubs

This term means at least five boys or girls with a local leader in one community. This plan not only keeps up the interest of the club members but tends to eliminate the objectionable features that have crept into your pig club work in the past three years. Namely: entering one pig and showing another; entering a pig that is older than the rules permit; showing a litter that complies with the Fair regulation, but does not comply with the letter and spirit of the pig club rules, and finally quitting after the show at the county fair without handing in a record book or taking part in achievement day exercises. A club in which boys and girls win prizes without any regard as to the means may be termed vicious. Standard clubs will eliminate these objections.

Medium Type

Medium-type Poland Chinas made faster and cheaper growth than either Big-Type or Small-Type pigs in U. of I. tests last year. This indicates that it is possible to secure a pig that is too long-legged, narrow and shallow-bodied to produce the most rapid and economical gains, the feeder steer nor the feeder lamb of this type has proved desirable for the feed lot; nor has the draft horse of this type shown itself to be best adapted to steady work at heavy loads. A pig may also be too short-legged, chuffy and thick. In this test Poland Chinas a medium type produced 4.5 per cent more rapid gains than those of a small type and 17 per cent faster gains than those of a larger type. These medium type pigs also made their gains on 3 per cent less feed than the small type and 7 per cent less feed than the large type. More investigation work along this line will be made.

New Remedy for Worms in Hogs

Santonin has long been used as the active principle in worm capsules for hogs, but now it is so scarce and so high in price that we are fortunate indeed to learn of a new worm expellant.

This new remedy consists of an oil combined with a vermifuge and has proven entirely satisfactory in several counties where it has been used.

Castor oil—1 gallon.
Oil of wormseed—8 ounces.
Dosage—Pigs up to 40 lbs. ½ oz. or 15 cc. From 40 to 60 lbs. 1 oz. or 30 cc. Adults, 2-4 oz. or 60-120 cc.

The cost is about 4 cents per dose for a 50 lb. pig or 8 cents for a 100 lb. pig. A quart contains 32 doses. Directions: Keep the pigs away from feed for 24 hours, then give them water. Hold the pigs by the forelegs but do not let them throw their heads back.

With an ordinary dose syringe give the oil at the side and back of the tongue. The pig's nose

PEACH BLOSSOMS

Year after year our old peach tree
Has bloomed beside the door,
And every last time seemingly
More lovely than before.

We see, as eyes approach their night,
More clearly—to our grief;
The years that grind away our sight
Leave beauty in relief.

What all for age's sake we miss
Of joys the seasons bring,
We never get too old to kiss
The blushing cheek of Spring.

How blest if we this pilgrimage
Between birth and the tomb
Commemorate from stage to stage
With annual feasts of bloom.

For oh, at last there comes a spring
When flakes that on our heads
And at our feet fell fluttering
Fall soft above our beds.

And bloom they ever none the less,
We shall not rise to see
The lost eternal loveliness
That hangs upon our tree.

—JOHN KEARNS.

Ask the Office Secretary We frequently have men call at the office, inquire for the Adviser and when they find he is not in they leave without making known their errand. We frequently find that the office secretary might have given the men the needed information if they had but made their desires known. All the correspondence passes thru her hands, and she can often give you information on matters concerning which we have to write to other places.

Besides if your wants are known a memorandum is left on the Adviser's desk and the matters are attended to as soon as he comes in. We earnestly request that all men who call at the office try to let the office secretary know on what subject they are seeking information or aid.

Utility corn is high yielding and has smooth heavy ears. This type has less disease than rough corn. The last two years in De-Witt county field tests this smooth type beat the rough corn 12 bu. per acre. In selecting seed ears, insist upon these features:

1. Bright, shiny, solid, heavy ear.
2. Moderately smooth, thick, deep grains, with small amount of starch. Starch is the light part at the outer end of each grain.

3. No discoloration from weather or immaturity.

4. Bright, white, smooth break where shank was attached. A brown, spotted plift or stringy break, indicates disease in that ear, even though it may otherwise be of utility type.

Either Going or Coming

If you are either quitting the Farm Bureau or joining for the first time, there is one thing absolutely certain. If you have never done anything suggested by the county farm bureau on your farm, you have not enjoyed the work, and if you are coming into the organization now you will not enjoy the organization without you do something on your farm better this year than you did last. Glance over the program of work and see if there is not something in it for you. We want you to be a live member.

SEED CORN

THE COLUMBIANA FARMS AT ELDRED, ILLINOIS, Greene County, again have carefully selected and tested seed corn of strong germination for the Spring of 1923, which they produced in 1922, from DISEASE FREE SEED CORN, purchased from the FUNK BROTHERS SEED COMPANY at $10.00 per bushel. This corn is Yellow Dent, called Utility Type. The medium, smooth, well matured ears will give higher yields and better quality than the rough starchy corn which is later in maturity, lighter in weight, with inferior root development, more barren stalks, and has less vitality to resist unfavorable weather.

The corn will be distributed to farmers in Morgan County, Illinois,

MEREDOSIA'S BOARD MEMBERS TAKE OFFICE

Mayor-elect L. F. Berger in Address to Village Board Recommends $1 Per Year Salary for Mayor and Board Members—Other News Notes from Meredosia

Meredosia, Ill., April 28.—The Village Board met in regular session Thursday evening, April 26, at the city hall. The regular routine of business was transacted after which the city treasurer, Miss Margaret Cody and city clerk, H. D. Berger gave their reports for the year and were received and approved by the board. The reports showed the city finances to be in the best condition they have been in for the past several years. The old board then adjourned and the new members were sworn in by Police Magistrate A. E. Ritscher. They were L. F. Berger, mayor; Henry Hinners, J. E. Beauchamp and G. M. Steinberg, members of the board. Mr. Berger and the first two were re-elected and Mr. Steinberg of the firm of Kappal Bros. Fur company is a new member of the board. After the members were sworn in, the mayor made an address to the board in part as follows:

"It is a pleasure to be the presiding officer of our community with a representative board such as I have before me tonight. It is very seldom you find any community where the business men have not aside business matters and have taken up the reins of their respective municipalities such as the business men here have done at Meredosia. In taking this office the fourth time, I want to thank the large number of men who gave me their support and to the women who made my election sure. The citizens of Meredosia have bestowed on me the highest honor in their power to give and my aim and ambition is to administer the affairs of our city in such a manner as to merit the confidence you have shown by your votes for the fourth time.

"I believe that every department should be on an efficient basis. When the city spends a dollar it should get 100 cents worth in return. During my first term, I discarded those that I thought had been living off of the city and giving about 40 cents in value for every dollar they received. I haven't changed my mind about that matter tonight.

"Our streets and alleys at all times should be clean. I favor an ordinance forbidding citizens from dumping cans or rubbish in them.

"In regard to sidewalks I think we have sufficient good walks, more than any town of this size in the state and I would suggest we make only necessary repairs the coming year on walks and give more attention to our streets by oiling and grating, etc., from funds available.

"In regard to salary, I would recommend that we pass an ordinance reducing the mayor's salary and members of board to $1 per year. I will refer this matter to the Committee on Ordinances.

"I stand for the enforcement of city ordinances and state laws, and will prosecute any law violation when I have the proper evidence but I will not spend the city's funds trying to prosecute a case on gossip. If any citizen has a just complaint and will back it up by appearing before Police Magistrate or Justice of the Peace and swear to it, I will prosecute the case to the limit. I am for a clean town and will do my duty as the presiding officer to make Meredosia clean as far as my power permits.

"In looking over the records we find there has not been a dissenting vote cast by members of the board.

"Permit me at this time to make the following recommendations for your consideration:

"First—I think we should have a regular police officer whose duty it would be to take care of the city park and cemetery and the moving of weeds on the streets and to clean up on "crap shooting" and "hootch selling" and to arrest every drunk found on the streets or alleys.

"Second—I think we should purchase enough road oil to oil the streets from the Wagon and Auto Bridge to the city limits on Main street providing the property owners on those streets pay one-half the cost of the oil.

"Third—I would recommend the purchase of a new road drag of the latest type.

"Fourth—I suggest we continue to grade on Main street when suitable until we get them in good condition for oiling."

Following are the appointments made by Mr. Berger and approved by the board.

Mayor protem—J. F. Brockhouse.

Health warden—Dr. F. A. Ne-vill.

Treasurer—Miss Margaret Cody.

Committee appointments: Finance—J. F. Brockhouse.

Police and highways—Henry Hinners.

Fire and lights—G. M. Steinberg.

Public improvements—W. F. Rogers.

Public health—J. E. Beauchamp.

Ordinances—Charles G. Wegelhof.

After the appointments were approved the board voted to purchase a car of road oil. The matter of improving the streets was referred to the committee on Police and Highways. The matter of police officer was referred to the same committee. The committee on finance of which J. F. Brockhouse is chairman made their report to the board recommending that we appropriate the same amounts as was appropriated last year for the city budget which are as follows and were approved by the board:

Lights, $1,100; walks, $250; police, 100; cemetery, $150; Leg-al advice, $100; contingent $500; elections, $100; printing, $150; park, $150; salaries, $250; streets $3,000.

No further business, the board adjourned until its next regular meeting after which the members of the board and Prof. Starke were invited to C. P. Hedrick's, cafe where refreshments were served by the mayor.

Exquisite complexion is sure, by building more Red-Blood-Cells!

Beautiful complexions come from blood that is rich with many Red-Blood-Cells. Every woman can now have a queenly complexion in a surprisingly short time by using S. S. S., the great builder of Red-Blood-Cells.

Madam, here is just the reason why you have had such a hard time trying to obtain that spotless, queenly complexion that makes half the world drop its work to love and admire! Glorious secret! Glorious because it's true, because it is based on a law of nature which is absolutely certain, and which never, never fails! It is as old as the hills, yet new to you and to millions! A trial will prove its success in your own case. Beautiful complexions can be made quickly and surely. Beautiful complexions come from "beautiful" blood—blood that is rich in red-blood-cells. The more red-cells, the richer your blood. The richer and purer your blood, the clearer the skin. The clearer the skin the more spotless is your complexion! It size is the more economical.

Miss Margaret Frye, Lapel, Ind., writes: "I was troubled with pimples and blackheads, was nervous and was losing weight. I took S. S. S. I gained in weight. My skin cleared up. S. S. S. is the most wonderful blood medicine I have ever taken. Several of my friends are now taking it for the same reason I did."

becomes smooth, velvety. Blood impurities are always pumped by the heart into the face. That is what causes that grainy appearance, that muddiness, sallowness, pimples, blackheads, acne, red spots, and that impossible "something" which no face cream, massage, or face powder can cover up or beautify! The foundation for a beautiful skin simply is not there, and no face treatment can give it to you. But increase your red-blood-cells, and quickly the ruby tint of purity begins to glow in the cheeks, the complexion becomes venus-like and immaculate! Try it. It will do it every time. S. S. S. builds the red-blood-cells you need for a beautiful complexion. Most of us haven't enough red-blood-cells, even though we may be in fairly good health and have no skin eruptions. Begin using S. S. S. at once, and give yourself what you have been working for, for years. S. S. S. is purely vegetable. It is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

MEREDOSIA'S BOARD MEMBERS TAKE OFFICE

Mayor-elect L. F. Berger in Address to Village Board Recommends $1 Per Year Salary for Mayor and Old Board Members—Other News Notes from Meredosia

Meredosia, Ill., April 28.—The Village Board met in regular form Thursday evening, April 26, at the city hall. The regular routine of business was transacted after which the city treasurer, Miss Margaret Cody and city clerk, H. D. Berger gave their reports for the year and were received and approved by the board. The reports showed the city finances to be in the best condition they have been in for the past several years. The old board then adjourned and the new members were sworn in by Police Magistrate A. E. Ritscher. They were L. F. Berger, mayor; Henry Hinners, J. E. Beauchamp and G. M. Steinberg members of the board. Mr. Berger and the first two were re-elected and Mr. Steinberg of the firm of Kappal Bros. Fur company is a new member of the board. After the members were sworn in, the mayor made an address to the board in part as follows:

"It is a pleasure to be the presiding officer of our community with a representative board such as I have before me tonight. It is very seldom you find any community where the business men have set aside business matters and have taken up the reins of their respective municipalities such as the business men here have done at Meredosia. In taking this office the fourth time, I want to thank the large number of men who gave me their support and to the women who made my election sure. The citizens of Meredosia have bestowed on me the highest honor in their power to give and my aim and ambition is to administer the affairs of our city in such a manner as to merit the confidence you have shown by your votes for the fourth time.

"I believe that every department should be on an efficient basis. When the city spends a dollar it should get 100 cents worth in return. During my first term, I discarded those that I thought had been living off of the city and giving about 40 cents in value for every dollar they received. I haven't changed my mind about that matter tonight.

"Our streets and alleys at all times should be clean. I favor an ordinance forbidding citizens from dumping cans or rubbish in them.

"In regard to sidewalks I think we have sufficient good walks, more than any town of this size in the state and I would suggest we make only necessary repairs the coming year on walks and give more attention to our streets by oiling and grading, etc., from funds available.

"In regard to salary, I would recommend that we pass an ordinance reducing the mayor's salary and members of board to $1 per year. I will refer this matter to the Committee on Ordinances.

"I stand for the enforcement of city ordinances and state laws, and will prosecute any law violation which I have the proper evidence but I will not spend the city's funds trying to prosecute a case on gossip. If any citizen has a just complaint and will back it up by appearing before Police Magistrate or Justice of the Peace and swear to it, I will prosecute the case to the limit. I am for a clean town and will do my duty as the presiding officer to make Meredosia clean as far as my power permits.

"In looking over the records we find there has not been a dissenting vote cast by members of the board.

"Permit me at this time to make the following recommendations for your consideration:

"First—I think we should have a regular police officer whose duty it would be to take care of the city park and cemetery and the moving of weeds on the streets and to clean up on 'crap shooting' and 'hooteh selling' and to arrest every drunk found on the streets or alleys.

"Second—I think we should purchase enough road oil to oil the streets from the Wagon and Auto Bridge to the city limits on Main street providing the property owners on those streets pay one-half the cost of the oil.

"Third—I would recommend the purchase of a new road drag of the latest type.

"Fourth—I suggest we continue to grade on Main street when suitable until we get them in good condition for oiling."

Following are the appointments made by Mr. Berger and approved by the board.

Mayor protem—J. F. Brockhouse.

Health warden—Dr. F. A. Ne-vill.

Treasurer—Miss Margaret Cody.

Committee appointments:

Finance—J. F. Brockhouse.

Police and highways—Henry Hinners.

Fire and lights—G. M. Steinberg.

Public improvements—W. F. Rocge.

Public health—J. E. Beauchamp.

Ordinances—Charles G. Wegelhoff.

After the appointments were approved the board voted to purchase a car of road oil. The matter of improving the streets was referred to the committee on Police and Highways. The matter of police officer was referred to the same committee. The committee on finance of which J. F. Brockhouse is chairman made their report to the board recommending that we appropriate the same amounts as was appropriated last year for the city budget which are as follows and were approved by the board:

Lights, $1,100; walks, $250; police, 100; cemetery, $10; Leg. advice, $60; contingent $300; elections, $100; printing, $150; park, $150; salaries, $250; streets, $3,000.

No further business, the board adjourned until its next regular meeting after which the members of the board and Prof. Starke were invited to C. P. Hedrick's, cafe where refreshments were served by the mayor.

John Edlen and sons, Percy, Lucian and Howard accompanied J. N. Peters to Winchester Wednesday.

Exquisite complexion is sure, by building more Red-Blood-Cells!

Beautiful complexions come from blood that is rich with many Red-Blood-Cells. Every woman can now have a queenly complexion in a surprisingly short time by using S. S. S., the great builder of Red-Blood-Cells.

Madam, here is just the reason why you have had such a hard time trying to obtain that spotless, queenly complexion that makes half the world drop its work to love and admire! Glorious secret! Glorious, glorious because it's true, because it is based on a law of nature which is absolutely certain, and which never, never fails! It is as old as the hills, yet new to you and to millions! A trial will prove its success in your own case. Beautiful complexions can be made quickly and surely. Beautiful complexions come from "beautiful" blood—blood that is rich in red-blood-cells. The more red-cells, the richer your blood. The richer the purer your blood, the clearer the skin. The clearer the skin the more spotless is your complexion! It size is the more economical.

Miss Margaret Fryc, Lapel, Ind., writes: "I was troubled with pimples and blackheads, was nervous and was losing weight. I took S. S. S. I gained in weight. My skin cleared up. S. S. S. is the most wonderful blood medicine I have ever taken. Several of my friends are now taking it for the same reason I did."

becomes smooth, velvety. Blood impurities are always pumped by the heart into the face. That is what causes that grainy appearance, that muddiness, sallowness, pimples, blackheads, acne, red spots, and that impossible "something" which no face cream, massage, or face powder can cover up or beautify! The foundation for a beautiful skin simply is not there, and no face treatment can give it to you. But increase your red-blood-cells—and quickly the ruby tint of purity begins to glow in the cheeks, the complexion becomes venus-like and immaculate! Try it. It will do it every time. S. S. S. builds the red-blood-cells you need for a beautiful complexion. Most of us haven't enough red-blood-cells, even though we may be in fairly good health and have no skin eruptions. Begin using S. S. S. at once, and give yourself what you have been working for, for years. S. S. S. is purely vegetable. It is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

GOOD DEMAND IN CASH WHEAT MARKET

CHICAGO, April 28.—Cash grain gossip: Wheat in the cash market today was in good demand and offerings continued light. Prices were 1c easier as compared with the previous close. Cash sales here were 10,000 bushels. Premiums and discounts were unchanged. There were sales of 10,000 bushels of wheat to go to store here. The seaboard said there had been some export acceptance but failed to estimate the amount.

Corn finished 3c easier in price. Trading bases were practically unchanged. Cash sales here were 85,000 bushels. There were sales of 25,000 bushels to go to store here. The seaboard reported a fair amount worked for export.

Oats closed 1c lower in price. The demand was good and premiums advanced 1/4c on No. 2 and No. 3 white. Cash sales here were 125,000 bushels. There are sales of 155,000 bushels to go to store here.

Cars inspected: Wheat 26; corn 101; oats 47.

More About Arizona From S. W. Nichols

Tucson, Ariz., April 19, 1923. No. 115 E. P. St. Street.

Dear Journalist:— It will not do for Miami, Fla., or California Bay, California, to claim the greatest attractions for anglers. A short time since an auto load of fishermen left this city early in the morning and after riding 23 miles in fifteen hours drew up at Port Libertad, on the lower Gulf of California.

They found good roads nearly all the way and at once proceeded to business. The largest fish landed after a long, hard fight, weighed 120 pounds and a lot more were caught, the smallest tipping the beam at 30 pounds. The principal kinds caught were rock or silver bass though other kinds are plentiful in that locality.

Three whales were seen and a school of porpoises, while other sea wonders are not lacking. All along the Gulf of Southern California good fishing abounds and the party returned quite enthusiastic over their experience. On the way the party passed thru Altar and Apitquitio, Mexico, where they saw much that was interesting. If only that country could have a stable government and tranquility there is no telling what its possibilities would be.

Fresh vegetables and food stuffs generally were obtainable, as the soil in that region is rich and the climate excellent. They bought fine oranges, a hundred in a sack for $1.20 and other articles in proportion. Arrangements are being made to exploit that part of the country by professional sportsmen and with good prospects. Fine camping grounds are at hand and all the necessary qualifications for disciples of the immortal Isaac Walton.

Great things are expected of the extension of the Southern Pacific line into the City of Mexico along the Western coast of that country. J. E. White, a prominent official of the company delivered a lecture here recently on the subject and was heard with much interest.

As this country becomes more settled the cattle industry comes to the front for the great stretches of this land which can't be irrigated can support cattle to a considerable extent and they haven't the cold storms of other haven't the cold storms to contend with.

A convention of cattle men is soon to be held at Safford in this state and then many items of interest will be discussed. It would seem as if Los Angeles capitalists might well take a few lessons from the great Chicago packers. The matter of union stockyards at Los Angeles has been for some time under discussion, but so far there doesn't seem to be a very great feeling of cordiality between cattlemen and the promoters of the enterprise.

I wish some of my Jacksonville friends could have a sack or box of the delicious oranges grown in this locality. The great Roosevelt dam in the vicinity of Phoenix has made this possible and fine oranges and grape fruit are produced there in abundance. Tombstone has a remarkable character with whom I became well acquainted while I was in that place. He was the only man in the town who was entitled to wear the little bronze button now becoming so scarce and we had good visits together.

His name is James F. Duncan but he is known as "Judge" though I don't think he ever sat on any kind of a judicial bench. The name brought vividly to my mind the one armed man whom elderly residents of Jacksonville will doubtless remember, and whom we called Judge Duncan.

My friend is the son of an Aberdeenshire Scotchman with the sturdy qualities of that race of people. He was born June 16, 1839 in Philadelphia and his father was a contractor who built the first steam woolen mill in the City of Brotherly Love and the second one in Franklin. The son graduated from the high school and then went to the blacksmith shop and learned the trade of pounding iron in which he did good work and acquired firm muscles and a good constitution. He was reared with loyal principles and when the Civil War broke out he enlisted in Co. A, 46th Pennsylvania Infantry and saw plenty of hard service. He was with Gen. Banks and in the first battle of Winchester which was a bad defeat for the union cause. There it was that our troops met the genius of Stonewall Jackson.

The next engagement was at Antietam, September 17, '62. There it was he had a peculiar experience. He was known to be a good marksman and while he did not pretend to be able to hit a mosquito in the eye he nevertheless had a steady aim which stood him well on that occasion.

The rebels had planted a cannon which was making our troops a deal of trouble but it was so guarded that to take it by assault would have been a great loss of human life. Finally the colonel rode up to Duncan's captain and asked him if he hadn't in his company a good marksman who could look after that piece of artillery. Duncan was at once selected and the task was given him. There was a large log in good location and a limb on top made a peculiar curve which served well as a loophole. Duncan lay down behind this log and as a rebel gunner came forward to load he was picked off and this was kept up until eleven men had been killed by the intrepid marksman. The rebels saw the direction from which the death dealing shots were fired but were unable to locate the man. Finally Duncan put his cap on a ramrod and elevated it above the log and in an instant it was riddled with bullets.

In the battle of Chancellorsville he next participated and all along through his years of service he saw hardships and encounters such as come to the lot of every brave defender of his country.

Probably the most stirring recollections of the old man are associated with the ever-to-be-forgotten battle of Gettysburg. By forced march his command reached the battle field and participated in the dreadful encounter which followed.

His command bore the brunt of the charge of the intrepid Pettitt and he says he can never forget that scene. Rebel ranks pressed forward only to be decimated by the union guns, but nothing daunted, they came right on, few as they were to an awful doom.

Duncan used his rifle till his ammunition was exhausted and still the rebels pressed forward, a few coming near enough to be struck with the butts of the rifles in the hands of the union soldiers. It was truly a sight and experience never to be forgotten. Three rebel soldiers were knocked down by Duncan before the assault was given up.

A rest followed, the union troops being too utterly exhausted to follow up the retreating rebel columns.

Here, too, Duncan's good marksmanship came in good play. The union general, Williams, through his aides located forty-three sharpshooters, or rather a large lot of them, and 43 were made to bite the dust. He was promoted to the office of commissary sergeant and was active in securing rations for the boys. He went with the 20th corps to Deckard, Tennessee, with General Hooker, whom he liked very much. He was in the battles of Chancellorsville and Resaca and in Sherman's famous march to the sea, and was discharged July 1, 1865, at Harrisburg, Penn.

His many experiences would fill a large book were a description of them all published, but he is a modest man and what has been written was secured after much questioning and entreaty.

For twelve years he was in the oil business in Pennsylvania and in 1879 came to Arizona and has grown up with the state. His wife is dead and he has one son living in Nevada. He took an active part in the growth of his new home. In 1882 he was a member of the territorial legislature, was the third Justice of the Peace in Cochise county and member of the first state legislature.

At one time Burnside Post G. A. R. flourished in Tombstone and he was commander, and was department commander in 1912, but now he is the only man in Tombstone to wear the bronze button.

He is a staunch Republican and at one time conducted a paper at Union, Penn., for two years. He has a home where he reigns supreme with no one to disturb or annoy him. He lives in comfort and seems satisfied with his lot. He says when he becomes disabled he will go to the county hospital to end his days and will leave his property to the county.

S. W. Nichols.
